

COURTS ADMINISTER AND DELIVER JUSTICE MORE EFFICIENTLY

Courts are increasingly disposing of cases and reducing backlogs according to established time standards. Improved efficiency, and public awareness of this, is strengthening public trust and consolidating confidence in courts.

“Our court now has ... a team of local judicial trainers to deploy training ... [t]hese are significant improvements and measurable achievements that directly help improve capabilities and competence of judges and staff.”

Court officer & Regional Training Team member, FSM

68% of court users experience improvements in efficiency, transparency and accountability

256 court actors received orientation & decision-making training

96% of court actors report improvements in time standards and /or case disposal rates