7015	Mark McArdle	Hi Mark. Got the heads up on a story that will break this Sunday in the Sunday mail regarding fire ants. Apparently paper going to town on the state government for the way it's been handled. I have a little more detail because one of our staff was a part of the program and Sunday mail are using him as one of the whistle blowers.	27/05/2011 2:15:39 AM UTC (Device)	12:15:39 PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby recollects that his first contact with Mr McArdle was within a couple of months Mr Ashby's employment with Gowinta Farms Pty Ltd, a farming enterprise in the Sunshine Coast in Mr McArdle's State electoral division. The managing director of Gowinta Farms was a LNP supporter and Mr Ashby developed a relationship with Mr McArdle as the local LNP Member which developed over time.
8031	Mark McArdle	Hey Mark it's James ashby. Had an interesting conversation with two government ladies who were on the Traveston Dam project at the time labour were pushing to have the dam built. Both women have endless "waste" stories including the question on the 3million Bligh gave to the Kabi tribe for their acceptance of the traveston dam project. What happened to that money and were they asked to give the money back. If u need Traveston dirt I believe you'd find them willing to dish it.	7/07/2011 6:03:30 AM UTC (Device)	4:03:30PM AEST	Sent
8566	Wayne Whiting	Hey mate. Flat out as usual. Got a dinner tonight with bronwyn bishop and Peter slipper which should be cool. How r u going	29/07/2011 2:22:04 AM UTC (Device)	12:22:04PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby recollects that this text message happened on the day of a meeting held at Gowinta Farms where Bronwyn Bishop attended together with Mr Slipper for an LNP event; Mr Ashby attended the function and at the conclusion of the function, Mr Slipper asked Mr Ashby to attend a dinner at his home that night. Mr Ashby attended the dinner.
8583	Inge Slipper	James, you scallywag! Thanks for coming friday night and bringing those to die for strawberries. I hope you enjoyed yourself. Inge	30/07/2011 9:48:17 PM UTC (Network)	31/07/2011 7:48:12AM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby's recollection of the dinner was that it was a convivial occasion and he received communications from Mrs Slipper the following day.

8584	Inge Slipper	Oh I paid for my scullywag behavior yesterday. I laid in the media room in the dark all day after Greg left. I honestly think it was that final glass of port. I hope my mouth wasn't misbehaved. Off to the regional flavours festival in bris. Beautiful day!	30/07/2011 10:31:37 PM UTC (Device)	31/07/2011 8:31:37AM AEST	Sent

8884	Mark McArdle	Andrew Cripps got a good write up in the caloundra journal after the pineapple industry meeting last Friday. It came out yesterday. Great story for the industry and a nice LNP flavor at the end.	12/08/2011 10:18:40 PM UTC (Device)	13/08/2011 8:18:40AM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby's recollection was that Mr Cripps was the then LNP Shadow Minister for Agriculture; given his general political support for the LNP, he thought it appropriate to contact Mr McArdle with positive information concerning an article following Mr Cripps' visit to the pineapple packing facility conducted by Gowinta Farms.
8918	+61XXXX949	So we've got run of the house tonight?	14/08/2011 6:52:30 AM UTC (Network)	4:52:30PM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby advises he is gay and has a sexual preference for men up to or around his own age; Mr Ashby does not have any sexual predilection which involves attraction to older men and the communication at 8921 is an accurate reflection of his sexual preference.

8919	+61XXXX949	Yeah totally. My flat mate great but. He's gay too	14/08/2011 6:53:53 AM UTC (Device)	4:53:53PM AEST	Sent

8959	Simon Ward	Yeah I can only imagine. If u ever looking for recordings of the news let me know cause i record all news services for LNP and farming stories. I normally cut them up and ditch em within 24 hrs though. Last nights morcombe collection of stories are on YouTube already btw.	16/08/2011 7:43:53 AM UTC (Device)	5:43:53PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby advises in his previous position with Gowinta Farms, Mr Ashby was accustomed to having regular contact with the media. Mr Ward was at that time (as best Mr Ashby can recall) the News Director for WIN Television on the Sunshine Coast.
8962	Simon Ward	Ive seen! U are quite the news hound. How was tonights thing? Chat to u soon	16/08/2011 11:31:22 AM UTC (Network)	9:31:22 PM AEST	Read
8963	Simon Ward	Interesting. Poor response to what appeared to be a grab for ideas by a labor state government, but I could be a little biased. Poor turn out. No new ideas. It was government just full of self importance.	16/08/2011 11:33:05 AM UTC (Device)	9:33:05 PM AEST	Sent
8964	Simon Ward	Everytime I see one of this Labor media alerts I avoid cos it's just a chance for them to look like they care. Painful. We rarely go to them.	16/08/2011 11:34:57 AM UTC (Network)	9:34:57PM AEST	Read

8966	Sam Yanky	Hey sam how's uni been this week. I just realised how late it is!! Been to a government forum tonight which didn't finish till 8:30 so it didn't take much to piss the night away. I spent part of today out with journos following this Daniel Morcombe story. The search is happening close to our farm and most of the journos know me and asked if I'd show them some tracks and roads that aren't on GPS. they're all dirt roads so I did that for a few hrs today.	16/08/2011 12:12:37 PM UTC (Device)	10:12:37PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby advises Mr Yanky was a University friend but the comment to Mr Yanky that "most of the journos know me" was an accurate reflection of Mr Ashby's understanding at that time.

9507	Simon Ward	Slipper won't be rolled. But a stacking of votes for the wrong FDC chair, vice chair, secretary and treasurer will cause some problems. Slipper is a good bloke, he's not been treated fairly by a particular editor at the daily. His refusal to speak to the media hasn't helped his cause but I think after chats with him recently he will talk to those that report fairly. Today will be a big day federally over a decision which path Peter takes. Are u coming up or will it be a less experienced journalist?	2/09/2011 11:24:39 PM UTC (Device)	3/09/2011 9:24:39AM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby's advises his view that Mr Slipper was a "good bloke" was an accurate reflection of his feeling at the time. Mr Ashby believed at that time that Mr Slipper had received some unfair press coverage and was supportive of Mr Slipper. Prior to this communication, Mr Ashby and Mr Slipper had had at least 1 or 2 conversations in which the subject of adverse media had been discussed. Mr Ashby's recollection is that Mr Slipper had told Mr Ashby that he had behaved appropriately concerning the conduct of his affairs and Mr Ashby believed him. Mr Ashby, in words he cannot now recall, encouraged Mr Slipper to seek to develop a better relationship with the local media and inform Mr Slipper that he believed that Mr Ashby may be able to assist him, given Mr Ashby's media contacts.
9508	Simon Ward	We don't work weekends n I can't come I'm in briz. I'll hav to find a journo to work if it is that big. Could turn you from your wayward ways!	3/09/2011 10:08:38 AM UTC (Network)	8:08:38PM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby advises that with the benefit of hindsight he understood the reference to 'wayward ways' to be a reference to his homosexuality but at the time it was unsure as to what it meant.

U can pop out to the farm if u want a quick one but?	5/10/2011 3:40:53 AM UTC (Device)	1:40:53PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby recollects that on 5 October 2012 Mr Slipper came to Gowinta Farm and saw Mr Ashby. Mr Ashby was then concluding a meeting with an insurance agent who had attended his place of work. This insurance agent (Andrew, who worked for Suncorp) was someone with whom Mr Ashby subsequently formed a relationship. After Mr Slipper saw Mr Ashby and Andrew together, Mr Ashby and Mr Slipper went and had coffee. Mr Slipper (in circumstances that will be referred to below) subsequently met Andrew again and came to call him "Bill" because of what he asserted was a resemblance in the way Andrew dealt with people to President Clinton.

Irate at the expense WE as tax payers are forced to pay to not only process them, but feed, house, clothe, medical, cigs, and god knows what else they require. The average Australian is tired of having to sit back and cop it up the arse! Pardon the pun... Why is it our rights as Australians have been compromised and theirs have been over emphasized. We're fighting what feels like a winless battle. 10101	Peter Slipper	Only playing with you! Of course I'm voting no. With respect to the offshore processing bill though, it would have had some merit if it was a one for one swap. 5 for one is silly and the Malaysians only agreed to take 800. If boat arrivals knew they would NEVER be settled in Aust then that would stop people wanting to arrive by boat. That was the idea behind the govts bill but they negotiated such a poor deal of 5 for 1.	10/10/2011 4:43:43 AM UTC (Network)	2:43:43PM AEST	Read

10260	Peter Slipper	I wanted to talk to u about the Mal brough news article that was published on the weekend too. When u get a lunch break today call me cause I have a couple of ideas that defunk the idea of being a fly in fly out city for the mines. Brough claims that you'll have to move to the coast to be considered for a mining job. What about the people who've already made the move here thinking theyd found work and are stuck on unemployment. It might attract a higher income family over time, but that creates problems for low income workers (hospitality especially) when rents go thru the roof like every other mining town. This then drives unrealistic prices on everything. I would imagine while sounding great, fly in fly out miners will just put the sunshine coast on even shakier grounds. What's your thoughts?	12/10/2011 9:28:13 PM UTC (Device)	13/10/2011 7:28:13AM AEST	Sent

10443	Peter Slipper	If the weather is good Sunday I want to go for a fly. Yeah going for a drive to bris tomorrow. I'm free tomorrow night but. He is off to another event tomorrow night with his mate. What's your plans tomorrow evening?	14/10/2011 12:40:46 PM UTC (Device)	10:40:46PM AEST	Sent

10444	Peter Slipper	He reminds me of when I met Bill Clinton	14/10/2011 12:45:23 PM UTC (Network)	10:45:23PM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby advises that after this reference to President Clinton, Mr Slipper from time to time started referring to Andrew in communications with Mr Ashby as "Bill".
10445	Peter Slipper	How so?	14/10/2011 12:45:41 PM UTC (Device)	10:45:41PM AEST	Sent
10446	Peter Slipper	When I met the President in Canberra he shook my hand and touched my other elbow in a gesture that made me feel I was the only person in the room . Monica didn't stand a chance. Andrew similarly is a touchy person which makes him seem warm and friendly and genuine!	14/10/2011 12:53:14 PM UTC (Network)	10:53:14PM AEST	Read

10455	Peter Slipper	Don't you know I'm a paragon of virtue! You should have come tonight.	14/10/2011 1:16:03 PM UTC (Network)	11:16:03PM AEST	Read

10514	Andrew Suncorp	Had the official job offer tonight. $90 + phone + around 80 nights in Canberra at an additional $160 a night I'm away. Very tempting!!! I just do t know if he can get up at the next election. The election according to Peter won't be until sept 2013. He also says he'll place me in another politicians office as media advisor if he's unsuccessful. I'm going to have to do some talking to Mark McArdle I think. Mark and Peter hate each other but at least he'll be honest with me.Hows the night been? Mr Ashby believed it was appropriate just to respond in a manner that he regarded as professional.
10548	Andrew Suncorp	Thanks for a great weekend. I really enjoyed today. Had a conversation with Val this afternoon before my little sleep and she said it would be suicide if i went and worked for Peter. She also said there's a strong chance he may go independent which is a scary thought cause the party could disown anyone associated with him. I think the extra money wouldn't be worth it right now. Val thinks it'll ruin all chances of running in the next elections which isn't what I want. God this politics within politics is tough to understand at times.... 						G'day Peter After a great deal of consideration regarding the position within your office, I have decided that I won't be able to accept for a number of reasons which I'm sure you'll understand. I'm flattered to think you'd ask me firstly, given the importance the role carries. While you and other party members know my thoughts on entering the political scene in years to come, it's also important I have a greater understanding of the public sector, especially that of the agricultural industry I'm currently working in. I have a great deal of respect for Leonard who owns Gowinta, and for the past 16 months here on the farm, I've been given opportunities to sink my teeth into projects which have given me the pleasure of forming strong relationships with the likes of yourself and the rest of the party.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

						I have a number of projects which have just passed through Council that require further planning and action to ensure their success. The farm is going through a growth spurt that will ensure its long term future with Golden Circle and the Fresh Food Market and will also secure significant job numbers across the coast. The Caravan Park and Commercial properties have a solid 12 months work ahead of them to ensure their patronage and sale. I have no doubt the position you offer has long term security, however the commitment to Leonard and his families business is something I haven't taken lightly and I think it's one of the attributes you recognise and like.

						The friendship you and Inge have offered me over such a short period of time is amazing. You continue to allow me to learn about the political arena while showing a personable side to yourself, most others don't get the privilege to see. I will continue to assist you with my thoughts and what other help I can bring to the table with your campaigning into the future with the LNP. I also trust that you find someone with the same level of commitment you need and deserve. It's one thing I've discovered in the last 6 months, trust is imperative to any political office. If you don't have the support and trust of your team, you're screwed! I'll also have a chat to you, however I wanted to make sure my points in making this decision were covered off 100%. Regards, James Ashby - Marketing & PR Manager

11286	Peter Slipper	True. You asked about the 23 Nov. I mentioned I could give you a few days work associated with a canberra trip. Rhys is coming down from 20 to 24 nov including the coalition Christmas Party on 23. I could have you in office 23 and 24 and 25 nov. You could go to office on morn of 23 then fly thru office to can in the afternoon and go to the party and then come home fri or sat. The only challenge is that you and rhys would have to share a room at my place on 23. R leaves early on 24 to do an exam. You could control R to make sure he's not spiked by someone at party with rophinal or whatever. 12109	Inge Slipper	Thanks for the message. I won't bother u both, I was just hopeful that the negativity from some wasn't getting to either of u. Very pleased to hear from u and even more pleased you sound well. Drinks are definitely on the cards when you're back, I'm feeling way better, especially today. I did get the email about taking u both off all party correspondence which I thought was harsh. I wrote to Greg about Mal Brough today and the feeling I have today is to quit the LNP if the treatment we're witnessing is something all volunteers and members would be subject to if we were to support a line different to the party. I'm sickened by the gross behavior of some members and have felt sick in the guts at what was said yesterday and today. Canberra is probably a very good place to be given the vile attitude of the SCD. U don't need to see their shit. 12447	Peter Slipper	James, Your day? Did 3000 words on facebook in just 2 messages. Not bad eh?!	27/12/2011 8:13:28 AM UTC (Network)	6:13:28PM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby recollects that the context of this message was that he had discussed with Mr & Mrs Slipper the use of social media. One of the messages that Mr Ashby had sought to convey to Mr Slipper was that Facebook was for short, to the point, communications. He responded by saying "I'm going to smack u". Mr Ashby meant this as a reference to the fact that putting 3000 words on Facebook in just 2 messages showed a complete misunderstanding of how to use social media effectively. The reference to "Ahhhhhhhh" was Mr Ashby seeking to convey his frustration at what had been conveyed to him.	R2[14]

12520	Peter Slipper	Greg/Joyce,If the LNP intends to run in Fisher despite the conventions of an independent Westminster speakership, then its preselection should be as soon as possible before Brough's stacked numbers click in. If they hold off till Brouchs people can vote, then anyone else is dead meat and a deal would have been done by Bruce McIver and the LNP to deliver Brough the endorsement which would be the worst possible outcome! 12521	Peter Slipper	I strongly believe you shouldn't speak publicly about this but we should be getting some LNP members or voices to take this to the media. Brough has a history of stacking votes or vote rorting as highlighted by PoliticalRace. I think u need to keep your nose clean publicly and let it appear there's internal LNP bickering.	1/01/2012 3:45:32 AM UTC (Device)	1:45:32PM AEST	Sent

Mr Ashby's recollection was that this was the first time that he met the Ambassador for Hungary, Ms Siko. Mr Ashby formed a very good and friendly relationship with Ms Siko to the extent that he was later offered to stay overnight at the Hungarian Embassy's private residence if he could not find suitable Canberra accommodation. During the course of his communications with Ms Siko, he was encouraged to visit Hungary.

Will be a good opportunity to make use of your video gear. A digital camera will also be needed. 13056	Peter Slipper	No hate mail on Peter slipper today over wilke deal. I'm so surprised even the dailies story doesn't mention u either. I gave the daily a very good story this past week to help build the love towards our office. it was about Will's mum on board the ship that sunk. She was on it a few moths ago and had photos with the captain and everything. Good local story that they appreciated. Mark asked to meet both Karen and I and we agreed. He assured us he wants a clean slate and wanted to guarantee us there isn't a hate slipper campaign or office agenda to get u. Mark explained to us that Richard was useless and they were only getting pissy press releases about school visits and boring stories. Knowing how media work, they ok once or twice a year, but they want meaty stories. U offered them so much meat by not making yourself available. I told him the trust will have to be earned. It's going to take some time to heal wounds. He was reasonable in the meeting and he recognized the change already in press releases he'd received from Karen that there was meat for them to chew off off an no need to speculate or dig deeper. We'll test them over time and in the mean time I will feed them little local stories of interest to keep them on good terms. I would like to leak them something I know about the LNP if you're ok with it? No names but it's something they can investigate. LNP are planning to scrap the $50,000 limit set on candidates campaigns if elected. I'll say it's a Jarrod thing and they'll burn the fuck out of him in their chase. He's feeding shit on u, so it's time to feed it back.	21/01/2012 10:19:10PM UTC (Device)	22/01/2012 8:19:10AM AEST	Sent

13070	Peter Slipper	He skated around it by saying its an odd question and said the question shouldn't relate to the issue of pokie reform. He said he's apart of a minority party position and people should stop looking at it as a majority prism. He said the mandatory commitment proposal wouldn't have had the numbers in the parliament so in that context the Prime Minister has put up a proposal to Andrew Wilkie that was different to the one he wanted. Andrew or tony Abbott for that matter if they were keen on them still, could put them up to see if they get thru the parliament. His feelings are it wouldn't get they regardless of who tried putting them thru parliament. He said gillard does not have control over his vote and neither Wilkie or gillard put up a pokie reform package he would have voted for. He doesn't like pokies but didn't think that plan would have worked.	22/01/2012 1:01:45 AM UTC (Device)	11:01:45AM AEST	Sent

At the same time this communication was taking place, he was receiving messages from Mr Slipper which he was attempting to deflect by indicating that he was happy for Mr Slipper to be closer to Mr Knapp. Mr Ashby had at the time these communications took place, been the recipient of rumours that Mr Knapp and Mr Slipper at some stage had had a relationship which transcended being on friendly, professional terms and had been told about the existence of a video involving them both. By this stage, Mr Ashby recalls that he had felt uncomfortable concerning the incident involving the massage and was concerned to make it plain that he wanted the relationship to be one of a purely business nature.

At this time, he regarded Mr McArdle as a close personal friend and someone whose experience and judgement he respected. Mr Ashby also reposed confidence in Mr McArdle because he was a lawyer and he was someone whose wife had worked with Mr Slipper for a long period and had advised him against taking the job with Mr Slipper in the first place. 13505	Tania Hubbard	Hey there dearest. Tania here. I sat up over night about our chat, again this morning. PLEASE DO NOT TEXT ME BACK. This is just from me to you for further thought. Because I care I am going to ask Are you decision making from ego? Are you feeling a rush from the power of this moment - are you clear this is not the case? I could not tell completely last night. Am concerned that you will not be protected. I understand you trust Mark - is his and your intention clear - measure up all the costs and consequences - remember this is not a heart decision - this requires logic, reason, analysis. No meetings for you with any other Min was what we discussed last night - pass the text forward in hard copy only to Mark - let him move it forward. Backup phone, delete messages, put in safe and let it be. A smoking gun usually means someone has already been shot! Don't let it be you - please. Tell me to sod off - I can handle the truth - won't text you again with this without your express wish for further discussion. Take great care. Tania	4/02/2012 3:40:00 AM UTC (Network)	1:40:00PM AEST	Read	Mr Ashby recollects that this communication occurred after an evening where he had confided in Tania Hubbard the feelings of distress and harassment he felt concerning Mr Slipper's actions. He had informed Ms Hubbard, a former political advisor, that he was considering whether he should take steps to raise issues relating to Mr Slipper's behaviour. Mr Ashby also recollects that he informed her that he had spoken to Mark McArdle who told him not to take such steps and see whether he could ignore the problem. By this stage, Mr Ashby recollects he was feeling resentful towards Mr Slipper and believed he would have communicated that during the course of his discussions with Ms Hubbard.	R1[41] R2[16]

13506		Your message contradicts itself lol. u wrote don't text u back, yet at the end won't text u again without your wish �� I really enjoyed our chat last night and I must admit there is an understanding of what power can do to people, but this doesn't empower me once the information is passed on. I don't want to use it for my personal power. It will empower someone else definitely. Will I be rewarded or condemned? Who knows. You are right though. The smoking gun is after the shot has been fired. We haven't yet seen the gun go off. I need protection, you're right. I always welcome your wisdom, so please feel free to text me anytime with thoughts. As noted above, Mr Ashby was aware that the Wickham was a gay spot; by this stage, it had become more and more evident to Mr Ashby that Mr Slipper knew a great deal about gay subculture and he was increasingly concerned that he had been hired because Mr Slipper had known of his sexual preference. He believed that Mr Slipper was constantly prodding him for a positive response to what he considered to be his constant references to gay activity.

13783	Mark McArdle	Had a follow up email from Jamie Lovell (aviation adviser) from the Federal Ministers office rearding Caloundra Airport and there's nothing Peter can offer in the way of support due to it being a State issue. I was however provided a list of information that Jamie was able to provide to prove she did look into it. I'll write to you on official terms along with a letter to all the businesses I met with about 2 weeks ago. Just so you know we didn't instigate conversations with the airport people. They came to us. Don't want u to think I was trying to take anything away from u �� hopefully the info will be of some use anyway.	14/02/2012 2:31:39 AM UTC (Device)	12:31:39PM AEST	Sent

14247	Peter Slipper	I supported Andrew by making that video because it was someone you get along with. I am a free agent in my own time and I do not see an issue with helping friends. I consider Andrew a friend as much as you do. I have made it clear to u before that I have your best interest at heart. I will not turn my back on friends who haven't turned their back on me. U need to respect my decisions outside of work, the same as I respect your decisions.	26/02/2012 10:12:28 AM UTC (Device)	8:12:28PM AEST	Sent		R1[43] R2[14][19]

14253	Peter Slipper	You don't get held to political account for my private life Peter. I will not have my private life managed. I would not bring you into disrepute thru my actions. If I felt my actions would have an impact on u or the speakers role I would resign. I am proud of the fact I took on this role against all advice from the LNP. I am as independent as you in my right to make decisions.	26/02/2012 10:19:13 AM UTC (Device)	8:19:13PM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby recollects that at the time he had this communication he wished to make it clear to Mr Slipper that there was a difference between his political and work activities and assisting those with whom he had a personal relationship. Mr Ashby's reference to being "proud of the fact that I took on this role against all advice in the LNP" was a reference to the fact that he knew various persons with the LNP disapproved of his association with Mr Slipper. He thought that he could continue to have personal relationships with those within the LNP without compromising his position and, when the interests of those persons did not conflict with those of Mr Slipper, he was free to be able to continue to assist his friends. Mr Ashby recalls feeling angry because he did not believe that he had engaged in any activity that was inconsistent with what he had told Mr Slipper he proposed to do or that was contrary to what he perceived to be the interests of Mr Slipper. The event Mr Ashby believed Mr Slipper had an issue with, was a video that Mr Ashby had taken of the launch of Andrew Powell's State election campaign. Mr Ashby was aware that 2 other members of Mr Slipper's staff had attended the launch and that he had not understood that Mr Powell and Mr Slipper were in any way political rivals.	R1[43] R2[19]

14266	Peter Slipper	We will discuss tomorrow. But understand what happens at work stays at work. Anything I do in my personal life is always measured. 14267	Peter Slipper	I have advised u of my assistance to Andrew before yesterday. Whether u chose not to listen or take it in is not my fault. I have never been dishonest with you Peter. My core values from a young working age has always included complete honesty. I don't hide things on a professional basis from u. If mistakes or decisions are made I will always man up and tell u. I would tell anyone. I am a grown man who's worked in positions of integrity for many years. I will not alter my professionalism now that I work sideline to a politician. Karen and I have only one priority, your office and future political career. You know how hard we work on that. I have not let you down once. U don't want an office of weak staff like Richard. I'm strong and u knew full well my relationship (good and bad) with the LNP. I see the good and bad in them for sure. Don't let the party or the haters detract from the good work youre achieving. Stay true to course and you'll run a very strong race in 18 months. Independence means u don't have to watch your back. 2757	Karen Doane	I think you should front tv and radio to clear your name and the unfounded claims against you... Especially given the SCD is digging into your life! I do think you have some rationale to do this. It will not only clear up your name but Peter's as well... That's my two cents	10/03/2012 2:19:44 PM UTC (Network)	11/03/2012 12:19:44 AM AEST	Read
2758	Karen Doane	Yeah it might be something I have to do. I'm just going to note all the sly action they take. They really are dogs who try and make public figures lives miserable. The sooner they're stopped the better. I'm off to bed but I'll chat tomorrow �� night	10/03/2012 2:22:09 PM UTC (Device)	11/03/2012 12:22:09 AM AEST	Sent

2773	Karen Doane	It is quieting down nationally but the SCD have tasted blood and will continue to pursue this and it will return during next year's election if not ended now. I believe the impending is a crucial statement for both of you; Peter for hope of local re-election and James for future positions and ambitions, this will stick if not handled correctly. James, if you admit to grabbing or throwing, you will always be seen as having anger management issues (not true but will be perception) . Peter- your actions following James statement must be measured and fit the offense (IF indeed there was one). I ask you both to serious consider your options because tomorrows news story is critical for both of you on the Sunshine Coast ONLY but will be a part of your CV always. #lottabullshittoconsider	11/03/2012 2:31:28 AM UTC (Network)	11/03/2012 12:31:28PM AEST	Read

2774	Karen Doane	Sorry for the lengthy MSG but I was on an intense 1:30 hr workout using scenarios. I want to protect your future as much as possible James! Just like you keep all those files on others, if this isn't handled right it MAY come back to bite you in the future, and that would be a tragedy for everyone because you have so much talent and great ambition and intelligence. Being able to laugh it off is awesome and will serve you well, just don't want the SCD rat bags messing w you. 14687	Peter Slipper	I would imagine down the track they might do a firmware upgrade to enable them to work with Australia's 4g but this does not have the slot because anyone with a smart phone like u have will pair with that instead of having an additional costly Internet connection. 14824	Peter Slipper	Spoken to Chris. I sadly had my phone on silent while dealing with the caloundra airport and then went home to meet the sparkie over the leaks in the ceiling from the heavy rain to have a light fixed that had become an unwanted waterfall feature in the house. That was at 4:30 by the time I got back. I told Mel and Richard I was off to a 2pm meeting and I would have told Michelle however she had left to go somewhere herself at 1:30 when I left. Prior to that I attended the blue care 20th anniversary meeting in place of u and Inge. I'm trying my best to go to all these events while achieve an outcome for the electorate. I don't want to hassle u with insignificant phone calls telling u where I am when u already tell us you're busy enough.	23/03/2012 8:24:00 AM UTC (Device)	6:24:00PM AEST	Sent

14896	Peter Slipper	Have no idea on ministry team but it's likely he'd retain health. He knows it inside out. Wellington and Cunningham were the two independents. Michelle clearly has no idea what she was watching of she THOUGHT LNP MIGHT WIN. It was a blitzing and no other word could be used. 'Thought' is an understatement. They'd claimed over 20 seats within 30 minutes of the count. Labor at that stage had none. I'm going to sleep now. Enjoy the trip	25/03/2012 12:26:42 PM UTC (Device)	10:26:42PM AEST	Sent

15326	Glen Nambour	Hey glen. I mean Nathan. I mean glen lol. So sorry bout that. It's been a day from hell. I think it all came crashing down on me when the lawyers said they would like me to have 24hr security with me to avoid death. That really hit home what I'm dealing with. I broke down and had a bit of a teary moment with the journos today. I fuckin hate weak pricks but the assassination remark hit a raw nerve. I'm back in meetings again tomorrow at 8am. I spent the night with Steve Lewis who is the news ltd journo. Nice guy. I really needed a drink tonight to take the edge off a very long day. Hope you're all good. I'll be back in qld somewhere by the weekend. Can't say exactly where cause the sexual harassment story will likely break by the weekend or Monday. Chat soon :)	11/04/2012 1:14:56 PM UTC (Device)	12/04/2012 11:14:56AM AEST	Sent	Mr Ashby recollects he had a drink with Steve Lewis on 11 April.	R1[55] R2[46]
