

JENNIFER SCOTT

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

PERSONAL

Born Sydney 28 March 1956, married, two adult daughters.

EDUCATION

- 1976* Bachelor of Arts, Macquarie University
- 1980* Bachelor Legal Studies, Macquarie University.
- 1981* Admitted as a Solicitor to the Supreme Court of NSW, admitted as a Solicitor and Barrister to Supreme Court of Victoria, admitted to the High Court of Australia.
- 1992-2009* Mediation courses, Bond University, University of Technology, Law Society of NSW, LEADR.
Arbitration courses, Bond University, Law Society.
Conflict coaching with Cinnie Noble
Advanced Facilitation, University of New South Wales
- 2000* Master of Laws (Environment Law), Macquarie University
- 2005* Master of Dispute Resolution (with Distinction), University of Western Sydney

EMPLOYMENT

- 1992-cont* Facilitator, Mediator, Conciliator, Arbitrator
Over of 2,000 mediations and conciliations and 1,000 arbitrations, including commercial, personal injury, succession, employment, family and community disputes, planning and environment disputes, building and construction, workplace disputes, intellectual property and domain name disputes. Organisations include:
- Law Society of NSW
 - NSW Supreme Court
 - NSW District Court
 - NSW Local Court
 - LEADR, - auDRP panel
 - Retail Tenancy Unit
 - Arbitrator & Mediator, Workers Compensation Commission
 - Legal Aid, NSW
 - Department of Defence
- 1996-2008* Royal Australian Air Force
Specialist Reserve Legal Panel, 22 Squadron, RAAF Base Richmond.
Duties include providing legal advice to defence force members and the

RAAF in administrative appeals, advocacy, legal education, mediation and conflict coaching.

- 2002-cont Adjunct Lecturer SGSM*
Lecture to MBA students - Negotiation, Conflict Resolution, Company Directors (law & governance components).
- 2004-2006 TAFE*
Lecture to diploma students - licensing law, small business
- 2003-cont ADR (Alternate Dispute Resolution) Training*
Create training programmes and provide training and coaching for organisations including LEADR, NSW Police, Chambers of Commerce, small to medium businesses, voluntary organisations.
- 2000-2005 Director, Champion Legal Pty Limited Parramatta.*
Business law including sale and purchase of business and commercial property.
Commercial and retail leases,
Contracts
Advice on trade practices,
Environment, Planning and Local Government law including compulsory acquisitions, appeals against local and state government decisions.
- 1999-June 2000 Professional Services Manager, Real Estate Institute of NSW.*
- Legal adviser to Board and members on property and consumer related issues.
- Managed the Institute's Disciplinary and Appeals tribunals
- 1996-1999 Adviser, Senator the Hon Robert Hill, Leader of the Government in the Senate, Minister for the Environment and Heritage.*
- International and domestic greenhouse negotiations.
- Development of the Australian Greenhouse Office
- Assisting with Australia's nomination for World Heritage listing of Blue Mountains
- Representing the Minister on various task forces
- Assisting with preparation and negotiation of legislation from drafting through to passing of Bill
- Speech writing
- Negotiating with government, non-government organisations and industry to develop and implement national policies.
- Government representative on NRMA Clean Air 2000 Task Force
- 1980-1996 Solicitor.*
1980 – 1983: Semmens Hatch and Anderson, Sale, Victoria, Litigation. Local and county court advocacy, conveyancing and family law.

1984-1987: Solicitor and partner (1986) in Moffatt Sullivan, Blacktown. Environment, planning and local government, business law, commercial litigation. Solicitor for Blacktown City Council covering all areas of legal work.

1987 – 1995: Partner in Coode, Scott and Corry, Penrith and Hawkesbury. Environment, planning and local government, commercial litigation, personal injury, conveyancing, local court advocacy. Panel solicitor for Blacktown city Council, Penrith City Council and Hawkesbury City Council.

1995 – 1996: Sole practitioner, Blue Mountains. Business law and Commercial litigation, local court advocacy, conveyancing, mediation, planning and local government.

1989 – 1996: Part time Lecturer University of Western Sydney and Real Estate Institute of NSW for Diploma of Business (Real Estate Management). Subjects included business and consumer law, dispute resolution.

MEMBERSHIP OF ORGANISATIONS

- Law Society of NSW since 1980. Since 1999 has served on several committees including Dispute Resolution Committee and Environment Law Committee
- The Australian Institute of Judicial Administration
- Coalition of Australian Tribunals (NSW)
- LEADR (Leading Edge Dispute Resolution)
- NSW Environment and Planning Law Association
- The Women's Club
- Rotary International

CURRENT BOARDS

- The Women's Club, Sydney
- Rotary Down Under Limited
- RYDA Limited
- The Australian Rotary Foundation

HOBBIES

- Bushwalking & kayaking
- Wine
- Travelling
- Reading