Hi Moira,

I won't bother to ask why you are associated with a person who targets one group of people based on the fact they want to live a bit different to how she thinks they should.

le- Anti Trans.

I am a female and always was and always will be but I don't run around telling other people how to lead my life and who to be attracted to.

Kellie Jai has the right to her own opinion until she incites hatred then it becomes a crime.

Why do people actually need to target someone else because those people choose a lifestyle or need a lifestyle that is not suiting the certain person? Isn't the way other people live their own business as long as they do not tell others how to live or incite hate towards a certain group?

So the golden rule is live how you want to live but do not tell others how to live or single groups out based on religion, choice of sex or gender, race or colour, disability or anything else.

Then we get to the NEO NAZIS. -These people leave no one alone and single out people based on race, colour, religion etc. THE philosophy of Hitler is the most evil way of thinking ever devised by humans on the planet. Nazis killed far more than 6 million Jewish people. They systematically disposed of children and adults with disabilities, gypsies, homosexuals, communists, activists, freedom fighters, ordinary people who tried to resist the growing evil in their midst. Mr Schulz of Bremen is one of them. He went to school with a Jewish lad. His friends and he heard the Nazi scum were looking for the Jewish lad. Mr Schulz- father of my friend aged 79, hid the lad in the cellar of his house in 1942. The heat was on and the Jewish lad hid in different places within these German mens' homes. My friend's house was searched 3 times. In the end his friends told the young man to flee and get to Israel or Spain. He went and the NAZIS (as opposed to Germans) kept raiding the houses of known associates for months. All over one single lad. To this day we do not know if he survived. My friend's father was not a Nazi but a German who had to do as he was told at least on the surface to survive. He was a driver for the SS. The SS officers often sat on top of a load of black market meat the young man had hidden under the seat to distribute to the local folks who under the NAZIS were very under fed. This is the regime whom the NEO NAZIS love so much. They take a doctrine out of context and think they know something of world war 2. They nothing at all. NOTHING. I went to Dachau and it was horrifying. The place virtually reeks of death even 80 years later. Nothing can eradicate the evil of Hitler, Himmler, Heinrich etc. NOTHING. But to let these young idiots run round saluting the Hitler salute is not okay.

Is it okay to vilify people based on race religion or gender selection?

Does any one seriously believe the nonsense Hitler and earlier racists cited as fact around shapes of heads, sizes of noses, tilt of shoulders and distance between eyes to rank the order of superiority in humans? With white blonde blue eyed males being on top of course. Might add Hitler had dark brown hair and brown eyes and was Austrian.

This came from 18th/ 19th C quest to explain why it was okay to keep slaves. A bunch of baloney and of course pure racism.

The thing against Jews was pure evil to remove the wealth from these people. Again, they used religious fear and political mumbo jumbo to use these people as scapegoats. Hitler needed a target and it worked.

It is now 2023 and we have enough to worry about besides the rise of bloody Neo Nazi fascist idiots. Russia, China and North Korea use the same sort of indoctrination to control their people and fear monger.

THEN WE HAVE Donald trump. Total loser who will cause world war 3 so incarcerated he cannot do much harm. He simply cannot run again for president. He will create another dictatorship in USA. NO DOUBT ABOUT IT. Look at Capital Hill. 2020. The Geiser is very dangerous. Racism and creating false fears and loading up people on misinformation and plain indoctrination in a very dangerous game.

For the record, I am female 64.9 years old. White, blue eyed and reddish hair. Hitler would have loved me. I hate him as I grew up looking like a race of people who set out to destroy anyone else. I ABSOLUTELY HATE NAZIS.

I do not have people like Kelly Jai. I just think she is an intolerant arse who wasn't brought up to respect differences and diversity.

My dad was a white, red headed Oz bloke in the 1960s/1970s who had friends from every nation in Europe, Greek, Polish, English etc. He did not tolerate racism ever.

He hated Nazis too. Because he understood what they did and what they almost did.

They almost destroyed the entire human race with their evil actions and beliefs.

They might still achieve this outcome if these f....ckwits keep drumming up Nazism as something good when it is pure unadulterated evil.

You as a politician should be wary of whom you associate. Anyone associated with bigotry or racism, intolerance or inhumanity is totally lost on me. Circa Pauline Hanson.

I do not get the present ambition in the world to make it go backwards fast and lose the precious gains in equality at least in some countries we have made. We will end up no better off than women under the Taliban if we are not careful. We all go oooooooo at the total dehumanising of women there, stripped of civil rights and treated like slaves, yet the western world is allowing basic human rights slip through their fingers right in the middle of the biggest democracy USA. Removing the rights of women to choose how their bodies will be treated for example. No abortions for rape victims or incest victims or women who need an abortion on medical grounds now cannot receive medical treatment in many states. Texas, Louisiana. Etc. Religious fervour denigrates human rights and women's rights to be non existent. By rich upper middle upper class white men. Powerful white men. Book removal from schools- censoring childhood literature by old fat rich white men. Who know nothing of Education. Censorship is also dangerous. It leads to indoctrination and people without ideas to refute the ones they are serially being fed. No counter argument.

I HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY. FREEDOM TO ALL WHO BELIEVE IN FREE DEMOCRACY FREE TO LIVE HOW YOU WANT WITHOUT PERSECUTION. FREE TO NOT BE BULLIED OR HARRASSED FOR YOUR DIFFERENCES. FREE TO LIVE FREELY AS LONG AS YOU DO NOT IMPINGE ON THE FREEDOM OF OTHER PEOPLE.

This is the absolute bottom line for freedom and democracy. You can only have freedom as far as your freedom does not impinge on the rights of others to enjoy their freedom. End of story. Nothing else matters. Equality is everything.
