

Transcript of Kellie-Jay Keen interview on Soldiers of Christ Online – 22 July 2020 (Tab 43)

Parties: Kellie-Jay Keen (KJK); Host (Host); Male (M)

- 5 Host: ---a women's campaigner or just a common sense campaigner for the fact that unfortunately those of us with testicles are not women, will never be women, will never have the bone density of a woman, will never have the joy of a period or childbirth. So yeah I'm gonna let her explain what she does and then hopefully ask a few relevant questions and yeah. This is SOCO by the way, this is a Christian channel.
- 10 KJK: Oh hi so we just, Standing For Women is my organisation, I also have a YouTube channel called Kellie-Jay Keen where I interview people. I put a billboard up with a dictionary definition of woman and it was removed for hate speech and then once you begin to understand the impetus behind that, once you begin to understand what's happening that women's rights are being erased through not being able to describe what we are and more importantly children's bodies are being permanently altered at this new cult called transgenderism, then I think it's absolutely essential that we all speak up.
- 20 Host: So I think that something for the family to know about is the fact that in transgenderism the suicide rate pre-operation is around 42% or 40%, it's just been declassified from the DSM body dysmorphia, yeah not the BDSM, that's a totally different subject which obviously none of you know about but also post-operational where they're just men without penises or women with penises now, the suicide rate is pretty much the same so clearly mental illness, clearly delusional thinking. So I guess what I want to ask is, it might seem a bit of heavy question but do you think the emergence of the drive for paedophilia acceptance also the denigration or the dismissal of natural teenage development or like adolescence, do you think it's all one agenda or do you think there are separate like a, yeah?
- 25 KJK: I think there's an agenda to destroy the nuclear family, to destroy particularly women. So if I were to believe that this movement is actually way back is a group of paedophiles and what they want to do is they want to get to children, then the best relationship you sever there is between the mother and the child because we are ultimately the protectors of our children. That is not to denigrate men in any way by saying they're not but men are more protectors of their own children and I think actually women are more protectors of children. And so that is, that's a feasible thing, however there's also the fact that paraphilias like transsexualism and genderism, they're often accompanied by another paraphilia. It's very uncommon for a man just to have one. So that's another link and the most common is paedophilia. So that would be another link. However even taking that, there are many other streams feeding into this particular river and the beneficiaries of that will be the most abhorrent individuals. So paedophiles will gain easier access to children because of the trans agenda. Whether that's because behind the transgender is paedophilia is a completely different issue. But if you give, if you remove safeguarding children will lose.

- 35
- 40 Host: So when you say river, I heard sewer, sorry I don't know if it's my hearing. Also, so I guess that everybody watching knows that God made man and he made them male and female, that's not like, there's literally two genders that's it. But the other thing to note I think is that transgender people are still choosing a – no I'm sorry – is a team as it were, whereas gender fluid and non-binary people are another camp of crazy that you know I know of a man recently I think who got Woman of the Year in some category but he only identifies as a woman part-time.
- KJK: Phillip Bunce.
- 45 Host: Oh there you go. Phillipa, potentially?
- KJK: Pip, every Thursday I believe.
- Host: Oh my gosh, I'm twenty seven and nine only, gentlemen [?]. Okay stop. Yeah, so how long have you been involved in, like were you just a regular women's campaigner---
- KJK: No.

50 Host: No. So this is as a direct result of some transgender—

KJK: I've never done anything. I got married, I had children, I stayed home, I'm still at home. My oldest is 18, my youngest is 11. Five years ago, I noticed something was happening and I asked this question, I said does my 11 year old daughter have the right to use a female only space and not see an adult penis? Now you'd think that was an easy question right?

55 Host: I'd go with she has the absolute right. Legally protected her.

KJK: I got called a bigot, a pervert for making my daughter stare at people's genitals, that my daughter was clearly a transphobe and that trans women are women. So even when you take, because it's a nonsensical belief, that's not true---

Host: A delusion.

60 KJK: --- if you take it to the logical conclusion these people can't admit when there's any space in which that penis is not female. You can't say it.

Host: Apart from at a DNA level, apart from every other sexually reproducing animal on the planet, I don't think anyone says their dog can identify as a bitch potentially nowadays actually---

KJK: Well certainly not if they're breeders and they want to make some money.

65 Host: ---exactly, they get less money for those puppies. So I know of a case where two twins, one of them was raised as a girl and one of them wasn't.

KJK: Is this at Johns Hopkins?

Host: Yeah I think they were like a test case and I think just the very fact that human beings are running these kinds of programs and tests is an indictment of just everything.

70 KJK: I think it was a circumcision that went wrong so they decided just to go the whole way.

Host: No the whole hog, or the whole female, or whatever you wanna.

KJK: Yeah.

Host: Oh my gosh. Anyway also I know of a guy and I don't know the name 'cause I wasn't really prepared. But he's an ex-pretend lady, he's an ex-transgender woman

75 KJK: [?]

Host: Who knows, bobett to his friends sometimes [?]. But yeah so he was saying that the psychological input he got from the counsellors because there's a prerequisite two years, was heavily biased and was assuming that his desired outcome was good for his mental health, was describing like feelings to wanting to dress in girl's clothing. And now he's happily married, like as in heterosexually married 'cause obviously that's now a thing as well. Yeah I don't know where to go but I just, personally it's a mental illness, if somebody's got schizophrenia I'm not likely to go along with the delusion that the television's talking to them through the metal hat I don't mean anything about schizophrenics it's because I know some, but without medication, without the therapy, there are delusions that crop up and these same delusions have now infiltrated the mainstream to the extent where you can have the police knock at your door for asking can a woman have testicles. I mean it's a question.

KJK: I've been interviewed twice yeah.

Host: And that was for---

KJK: Saying that you shouldn't transition children.

90 Host: You absolute transp— right stop this then.

KJK: But the thing is right, you and I have, I'm an atheist you're a theist but there's no compulsion, you're not trying to compel me to say your beliefs and I'm not going to compel you. And the State's not going to have anything to do with it. So I can even say... I won't but---

Host: You can say what you want here.

95 KJK: ---but I can say heaps things to you about I think your religion is whatever. And be insulting and offensive and it's still not illegal.

Host: Section 29J of the Public Order Act gives you the right, it says the Act won't prevent the ridicule, harranging, basically you can stress someone to the point of whatever, and it's their duty to walk away from you. Obviously if you're following them down the street that's harassment, but you can belittle you can bemoan but apparently you can't say that's a man even if he's stark bollock naked, bollock naked being the key phrase in that, and I think it's just outrageous because eventually you know, I mean my daughter – thanks for that love – my daughter at maybe five or six, she's going to kill me for this now that she's an adult, I think she was an astronaut for a week, I didn't send her off to NASA, I just thought oh like she's imagining that, so if she'd have come to me and said mummy I'm a boy I would've said that's nice lovey, like let's repaint your bedroom, not let's take you off to repress your hormones so that you never become either a boy or a girl, you just don't have anything. So in short, people, please support this lady's organisation, also support with your prayers, wherever you can, post the phrase 'woman, adult human female' because it's literally a dictionary definition and unless we're going to go down the book burning route I don't see anything whatsoever offensive about it even if I was empathetic towards transgender women it's still offensive because they are trying to emulate that very definition, so I just don't get it. You got any closing words?
