Livestreamed on 18 September 2024 at an unknown time	Transcript starting 5:14, ending 6:09: KJK: I also may give up my giving up drinking for five minutes and raise a glass of champagne to Moira Deeming, Kathy, and Angie Jones. To be fair I was a, I was a misfit, I was like, I was like the Charlie's Angel that nobody asked for in that little collection of women. But I might try and find a suitable, appropriate supplement for champagne because I hear it's a, it's really annoying for some men that women, I don't know, refuse to take responsibility and all the blame for men that they have nothing to do with. It's crazy right? It's crazy. What a crazy state of affairs. Transcript starting 7:59, ending 9:41: KJK: So I don't know if you've listened to some spaces over the last couple of days and caught up with what's going on in Australia. 		you just have a whole court case, based upon, the foundation of which, is that I'm a terrible human being. And I might be, but perhaps for not the reasons listed in that court case. And even if I was a terrible human being, it's really odd that sensible, serious politicians who want a career, who want to lead are such ridiculous followers of ideological cults. And they're foolish if they really think it really does any good for anyone cause it doesn't. It's the most proposterous thing to think that in order to gain people's votes you have to lie, that you pretend, that you think a man in a dress is somehow vulnerable. Because that is a lie. Nobody really thinks, nobody thinks "oh Dave, do you know Dave? Oh he's come into work in a skirt, oh I feel ever so sorry for him he's ever so vulnerable. You know Dave, oh yeah he's pissing all over the women's seats oh he's ever so vulnerable. Oh God poor Dave, poor dave." Nobody thinks like that, it's a lie, it's, it's what I keep discussing.

MB: Not ideal Yes. High bar to reach stage of bringing party into disrepute. I'm sure we'll come to this. Judge: If we come to it we cone to it. You don't have to anticipate it SC: Eg. One member calling female MP a barking dog.- disrepute? MB: Yes I'm sure SC: That person wasn't sanctioned? MB: Can't recall that SC: You can't recall that? MB: No I can't SC: You were asked a Question in your affidavit. Para 11 about safe schools. Did you have any knowledge in your experience as a teacher as to origins of safe school? MB: Yes. When I was at Carey grammar. SC: Formulated Le trobe uni? MB: Yes SC: Aware dep director of unit has written lengthy article about paedophilia? MB: No SC: Aware Deputy director stated the love of children equates with love of parent? MB: No SC: Aware this person wrote article asking how [reads]? MB: No SC: Were you aware Le Trobe director suggested many mothers and fathers agree children are sexual and generate sexual response from parents. Cuddling kissing fondling kids - not uncommon to be sexually aroused? MB: No SC: Would you consider a person who wrote those comments could be described as paedophile apologist? MB: Those comments are odious so yes but also aware language like that to brand as paedo apologists - in absence of strong info is politically toxic / X	3 October 2024 at 11:21pm
