Letter to the Minutes 27 /3/2023

The meeting to expel Moira Deeming on 27/3/2023 requires clarification and this is to be read in conjunction with the minutes.

To whom it may concern,

The Victorian Liberal Party Parliamentary team affirms that:

1. The motion to expel Moira was not formally put to the meeting and was withdrawn in full by the Leader. Her suspension is not connected to the expulsion motion.
2. The original expulsion motion referred to Moira having associations with Neo-Nazis and far right-wing extremist groups. We affirm that this was incorrect and that she is exonerated from those accusations.
3. The original expulsion motion referred to Moira having associations with disgraceful comments and bigotry directed at our LGBTQIA+ community. We affirm that this was incorrect and that she is exonerated from those accusations.
4. The original expulsion motion referred to Moira having associations with 'violence, prejudice, hate and odious actions'. We affirm that this was incorrect and that she is exonerated from those accusations.
5. The original expulsion motion referred to Moira having brought Parliament and/or the Liberal Party into disrepute by the above-mentioned associations. We affirm that this was incorrect and that she is exonerated from those accusations.

Conclusion: Moira has been exonerated from all claims within the original expulsion motion, and in particular, any and all accusations that she associated with Neo-Nazis, extremist right-wing groups or 'violence, prejudice, hate or odious actions' or holds values incompatible with the Liberal Party or Victoria. Further comments that Moira holds extreme views, or participated in violence, prejudice, hate or odious actions or has associations with 'far right extremists or neo-Nazi's' were made incorrectly and again she is exonerated from those accusations.

Hi Moira,

Letter to the Minutes 27 /3/2023

The meeting to expel Moira Deeming on 27/3/2023 requires clarification and this is to be read in conjunction with the minutes. The motion to expel Moira was not formally put to the meeting and was withdrawn by the Leader.

The original expulsion motion referred to Moira associating with certain people who associated with Neo-Nazis and far right-wing extremist groups.

There is no suggestion whatsoever that Moira has anything to do with, or any connection with Neo-Nazis or far right-wing extremist groups.

There is no suggestion whatsoever that Moira had anything or any connection to do with disgraceful comments directed at our LGBTQIA+ community. There is no suggestion that Moira participated in any violence, prejudice, hate or odious actions.

Conclusion: Moira has been exonerated from any accusation that she associated with Neo-Nazis, extremist right-wing groups and did not make any disgraceful comments about our LGBTQIA+ community. Further comments that Moira participated in violence, prejudice, hate or odious actions were made incorrectly and again she is exonerated from those accusations.
