Dear Moira,

I corresponded with John Pesutto today regarding your query. Considering this is your third time requesting the minutes and the details of your suspension via email, I wanted to provide you with a response today.

I asked John if I could fulfil your request. He said he is not releasing any proposed minutes until they are approved by the party room. After which, he will allow me to provide you with a copy.

He said that any documented record of the meeting does not constitute the minutes and no draft can be provided.

The next party room meeting will take place on Tuesday morning.

Regards,
 Renee Heath

Subject: Suspension Motion

Good afternoon Renee,

I have sought legal advice, and am informed that I have an absolute right to have a copy of the Suspension conditions and the minutes (even if they are drafts) for my confidential records.

I am extremely unhappy that I have not been provided with these.

Please forward them to me at your earliest convenience.

Kind Regards,
