I'll get my daughter onto any other orders you have asap after we get back to Victoria. And just in case you didn't know- but I 100% never denounced you, or SFW or the Angie or Kath. I denounced Nazism and said jokes were at worst poor taste, but I never gave an inch in terms of letting anything infer any type of Nazism to any of us. I will be sending the defamation letter for the 4 leaders of the Libs in late April. I'm also giving my first interview next week, an exclusive long form interview and I intend to reaffirm my support. I've only been quiet because I learned the lesson of making the media wait lol. But in the learned the lesson of making the media wait lol. But in the meantime a bunch of idiots have been invited to speak on my behalf and lying or getting it wrong. But never mind, they'll look idiotic in the long run. But I just had to write to you, because even though things went crazy in Au & NZ, it's been the most effective PR campaign we've ever had here. And one more thing, that night with you and Kath and Ange, was the most carefree and the MOST FUN night I've ever had. I love your attitude, and I love how you never show these bastards any weakness. And like I said, all the Mums around the world like my best friend and I were for so long, we have no voice, no platform, no proof we exist- but you give us all hope and you give us all hope and you give us all courage. Also, I hope you noticed that I took your advice to "glam the fuck up" lol. ANYWAY, sorry for going on and on- but I'm about to go through a minimum of 9 months of bullying by these psychos when Parliament goes back in May- but before it even begins, I just wanted you to know that I admire you greatly, I had the time of my life with you and that I regret nothing x

What a lovely message! I have no doubt that this horrendous injustice will be the making of your political career. I didn't think for a second that you'd denounced me. I was only saying to my husband the other night that I'd had such an amazing night out with a future Australian PM! I suspect so many have already reached out to say thank you to you. Women are desperate for leadership. Use your beauty to your advantage, it will protect you on the days you feel like crap and it will drive men who want to bring you down crazy. Plus looking like a goddess will make you media friendly!
