Please send it back via Tony that my offer is my offer. JP could get it done & this whole issue would be over for a new year at parliament. Im furious. I'll never, never, never, ever submit to some kind of kangaroo court or degradation or this blackmail over right to communicate about my political beliefs. And the more he comes back at me with this unjust garbage the angrier I get. My husband has begun counselling for the first time in his life. My children have had to begin therapy. I just had someone threaten to spit on me if they see me.

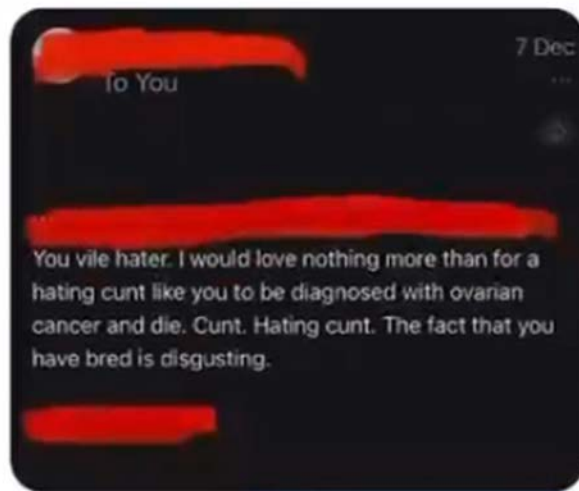

Because apparently I'm a filthy Nazi

I am innocent. For them to leverage their unjust expulsion to further deny me justice is the most disgusting & insulting move yet. I'm not standing for it.

Please don't shoot the messenger. I agree with you. I am just telling what he said. I'm not advocating for it.

Not at all, sorry was just wanting that the strongest of msgs to go back to him so he doesn't hold out even a sliver of hope that I'll fold because I don't want to hear from him unless he's signing or I'll see him in court
