Hi Ed,

Thanks for following up with the supplier regarding the CPI Template.

Confirming from our end that we have received the below CPI and have added to our pipeline. We will review the CPI and get back to you with our recommendation in two weeks' time.

Please note we are currently experiencing an unprecedented influx of CPI requests and our focus is on high impact requests across the business, please feel free to reach out to our team anytime in case of significant delay.

Thanks,

Thao Le

Hi Ed,

Thanks for the email confirming the listing with the speciality cheese section.

I am needing to put a price rise in now of 4% so as not to have any price increases once we are in the new location.

How do I go about loading up the increase?

Regards
Andre Richardson

Hi Andre

Please find attached range review outcome for the October Specialty Cheese Range Review.

Good news – we will be taking out the Cut and Wrap Quince paste and replacing it with the 2 100g Pastes that will be merchandised chilled in the specialty cheese case.

Please read through to ensure you are across the relevant dates - we need to be clear of all deleted line stock in DC and stores by October 17/10/22.

The supply chain team will be in contact in due course to work through running out stock and further information on new lines.

Please let me know if any questions and my apologies for the email late in the day.

Thanks
Ed

Hi Ed,

Were you aware that the Coles finest Quince paste won a gold medal,. And a trophy at the recent Fine food awards here in Hobart, 2 weeks ago?

The Fig & Walnut with Pepper berry won a silver.
The caramelised onion won the gold as well

Hi Ed,

Hope all is well, Easter has already gone!!

Just checking that you have received the samples?
And is there anything that we can do?
