Hi Beccy,

Hope you're well. Please see attached formal communication regarding a cost change we have on some of our products effective for deliveries from May 12th 2022, also attached is a WPL with the new prices effective from this date. The relevant commodity detail will be forwarded through to your VMO Team for review.

We would appreciate the opportunity to meet with Via and yourself to share more detail on: the cost change, our grow strategy and also how we plan to continue to provide great value for your customers. Our team can be available anytime, if you could please send through a couple of preferred dates/times it would be appreciated.

I look forward to working collaboratively with you and your team on the cost change in the coming weeks.

Take care and stay safe,

Ryan Bowman
