MOIRA DEEMING FACT SHEET

A. Kellie-Jay Keen aka Posie Parker's neo-Nazi links

1. Keen, is a British anti-transgender rights activist and the founder of the group Standing for Women.
2. Keen has used posters, billboards, stickers, and social media to promote anti-trans messages, and she has organized events in the United Kingdom and the United States that have been protested by supporters of transgender rights: Wikipedia (accessed 19 March 2023).
3. Keen's associations with neo-Nazis and far-right activists:
  - In October 2019, Keen appeared in a video interview with Jean-François Gariépy, a far-right YouTuber who advocates for a "white ethno-state" and has made videos with neo-Nazis Richard B. Spencer and Mark Collett as well as former Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke.<sup>1</sup>
  - In 2019, gave an interview to Soldiers of Christ Online, a far-right network.<sup>2</sup> Keen denied prior knowledge of the interviewers' far-right affiliations.
  - Parker has faced numerous allegations of courting ideas of white supremacy. One incident came after she took a selfie with Hans Jørgen Lysglimt Johansen, a Norwegian neo-Nazi who was probed by police after his comments against Jews and denial of the Holocaust.<sup>3</sup>
  - Parker was also accused of using a Barbie doll wearing a Nazi uniform as her profile picture on the social media site Spinster.<sup>4</sup>
  - Standing for Women's protest in Newcastle on January 16 sparked controversy after one of the speakers – Lisa Morgan – quoted Adolf Hitler to attack trans rights. "Do you know the big lie? The big lie was first described by Adolf Hitler in Mein Kampf ... The big lie is that trans women are women," Morgan told the people at the Parker-organised demonstration.<sup>5</sup>
  - Keen's Melbourne event on 18 March 2023, was supported by a group of at least 30 neo-Nazis, organized by the National Socialist Network, who were seen

Kellie-Jay Kean (Posie Parker) Barbie doll wearing Nazi Uniform...

Alejandra Caraballo
@Esqueer_

You know Posie Parker used a barbie doll with a nazi arm patch for a profile pic on spinster, right? She's a white supremacist. Pieing is also a form of political protest that was historically used by LGBTQ activists against Anita Bryant in 1977.

Gender-critical feminist Posie Parker in video with white nationalist YouTuber – and a lot of Mumsnet users are fine with it

- Oct 15 2019
- Written by Vic Parsons

British “gender-critical feminist” Posie Parker (left) and white nationalist French Canadian Jean-Francois Gariépy. (YouTube)

Posie Parker, one of the UK’s most prominent “gender-critical feminists” has appeared in what Mumsnet users are calling a “brave”, “interesting” and “brilliant” video with a French-Canadian white nationalist.

Jean-François Gariépy, 35, is a prominent far-right YouTuber who calls for a “white ethno-state” and has made videos with neo-Nazi Richard Spencer, the white supremacist who shouted “Hail Trump!” in front of a crowd seen celebrating Trump’s 2016 election win with Nazi salutes.

In videos attempting to prove white superiority and calling for all-white separatist states and a crackdown on immigration, Gariépy’s guests have included former Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke and known neo-Nazi Mark Collett. During his livestream with Gariépy, Duke made several anti-Semitic comments.

Gariépy’s latest guest was Posie Parker, also known as Kellie-Jay Keen-Minshull – one of the most prominent voices of the UK’s “gender-critical feminism” (or “terf”) movement.

Despite his well-known white nationalist views – plus court documents uncovered by the Daily Beast that reveal Gariépy has been accused of “luring and attempting to impregnate a developmentally disabled Hispanic teenager while lawyers contested his U.S. immigration status” – women on UK parenting forum Mumsnet, the home of much “gender-critical feminist” conversation online, praised Parker for appearing on his YouTube channel.

“If there’s anyone who can confidently debate with anti-feminist right wingers it’s Posie. It’s a really brave and interesting way to go,” one Mumsnet user wrote.

“Posie is bringing the truth about genderism to a wider audience,” another said, adding that “even if it might be an audience of people we don’t particularly like – presumably they still have the right to protect their kids.”

Some Mumsnet users, however, did not agree with Parker appearing in the video.

One acknowledged the optics of “gender-critical feminists” engaging with known white nationalists. “I think it’s an interesting tactic that will unfortunately feed into the hands of ppl saying (incorrectly) that all radfems are buddies with Nazis,” CarWreck posted, adding, “but it’s better than ‘no debate’.”

“This is such a massive issue that I’m glad there are some GC [gender critical] women who’ll talk to pretty much anyone,” one user wrote.

Another said, “I think it’s interesting to see Posie engage with anti-feminists on the right. She pokes and prods over a shared opposition to extremist genderism.”

The 80-minute video, entitled “Being Female with Posie Parker”, has so far been watched fewer than 5,000 times.

On 11 October, popular butter spread, Flora, became the latest brand to cut ties with Mumsnet due to it spreading “transphobic” content.

To the surprise of no one, Mumsnet mums are boycotting Flora in response.

Parker told PinkNews that she was asked to go on the show by Gariépy’s assistant, and that she gave his channel a cursory look and “nothing at the time stood out as anything unusual or problematic”.

She added: "I make it my business to avoid researching or policing the entire spectrum of someone's views, I think the mutilation of healthy children's bodies is too important, and so it's not usual for me to do an FBI style background check."

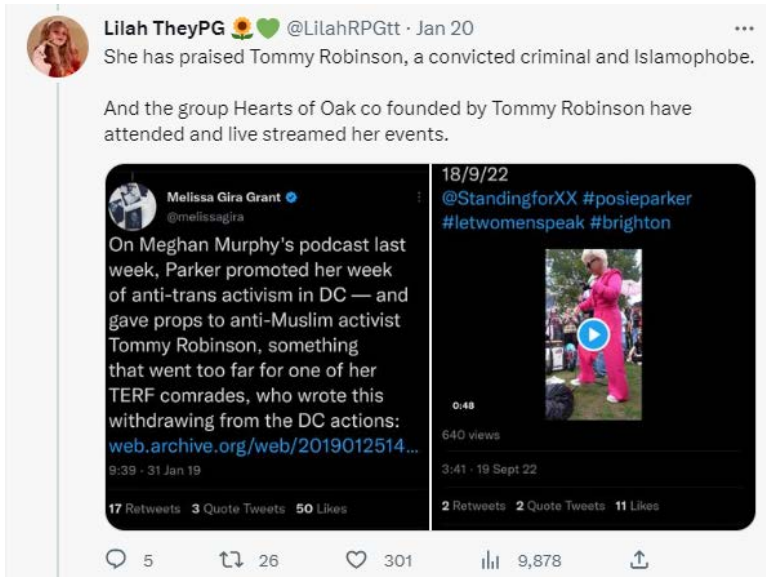

"I am, of course, concerned at the accusations I have heard since recording the show. The misogyny was not something that surprised me, it is very much at home in both the left and the right of politics, whether it be the enforcement of traditional roles through to pretending we don't know what a woman is."

"White supremacy and the racism that fuels it has no place in a civilised society, I abhor those views and the people that hold them. As a free speech advocate I think dialogue, even with those with the most odious prejudices, is essential. How are we ever to change or challenge them if we don't engage? These days so many people are called Nazis and far right that the prophetic warning that we will no longer recognise the real ones is beginning to come true."

Mumsnet founder Justine Roberts said: "Mumsnet users in this discussion are near-unanimous in their dismissal of the host as a 'white supremacist asshole'."

VICTORIAN LIBERAL LEADER'S OUTRAGEOUS MOVE TO SILENCE WOMEN'S RIGHTS ADVOCATE, MOIRA DEEMING

March 20, 2023

By Stephanie Bastiaan

It was an all-male pile-on to shut down women's voices at the #LetWomenSpeak rally in Melbourne over the weekend. Moira Deeming has been threatened by trans activists, drowned out by Neo-Nazis, and is now being cancelled by Leader of the Opposition, John Pesutto.

On Sunday night, Pesutto released a media statement (<https://twitter.com/WomensForumAust/status/1637419628396961793?s=20>) informing the public he was moving a motion to expel Deeming from the Liberal Party Room for her involvement at the #LetWomenSpeak rally in Melbourne on Saturday. The event, led by UK women's rights activist Kellie-Jay Keen, provided a platform for women to voice their concerns about the erasure of women and women's rights, spaces, and safety in favour of men who identify as women.

The Liberal Party's bar for exclusion from the Party Room is now alleged guilt by association of an associate if Pesutto's justification in his statement is anything to go by.

Going by that measure, one wonders how former Liberal MP Nick Wakeling survived so long, given that his brother is a self-described Nationalist and holocaust denier (<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-4870242/Nick-Wakeling-rejects-extremist-views-brother-Tim.html>).

I attended the rally on Saturday, and what started as a peaceful gathering of women very quickly turned ugly, with trans rights activists threatening violence and a face-off between Fascists and Communists.

The police permitted the Fascists in black masks to stand on the steps of parliament, where they used a megaphone to drown out the women speaking before walking in front of the trans activists riling them up. They were there to antagonise and start a fight. The crowd became so uncontrollable the police asked me to leave with my daughters for our safety.

In an extraordinary turn of events, rather than slamming the trans rights activists, Communists and Fascists for bullying women, the media and politicians have attempted to smear Kellie-Jay Keen and the #LetWomenSpeak rally with the Neo-Nazis.

theage.com.au

Liberals move to expel Moira Deeming over neo-Nazi rally links

The move to expel controversial the MP from the parliamentary party room follows her attendance of a rally associated with neo-Nazis.

(<https://www.theage.com.au/politics/victoria/liberals-move-to-expel-moira-deeming-over-neo-nazi-rally-links-20230319-p5ctgm.html>)

The Liberal Party should be standing up for women's rights. Their silence on male rapists and criminals being housed in female prisons under self-ID laws has been a disgrace. Their lack of concern that girls attending public school now have to share bathroom facilities with boys in the name of 'inclusion' is appalling. They are now trying to cancel a woman brave enough to fight for female rights in the public arena.

The Liberal Party boys club has one rule for women deemed undesirable to their collective apologist tendencies and one for their own. MP David Southwick has never had to explain his relationship with Rabbi Meir Kluwant who resigned as President of the Organisation of Rabbis of Australasia after a damning testimony in the witness box during the Royal Commission into Child Sex Abuse (<https://www.abc.net.au/news/2015-02-16/rabbi-resigns-as-head-of-rabbinical-organisation/6119458>). Nor why he falsified his resume (<https://www.heraldsun.com.au/news/victoria/liberal-mp-david-southwick-defends-false-qualifications-in-official-biography/news-story/438fd6f30ca7e986be4e0bc36413b58d>) to include qualifications and positions he did not have.

Similarly, long-term Liberal Party power broker David Davis waltzed through a preselection challenge last year despite the media reporting on unruly drunken behaviour that included abusing staff (<https://www.theage.com.au/politics/victoria/drunken-davis-lambasted-bar-staff-in-squid-and-wine-dispute-20220324-p5a7g9.html>) and touching guests (<https://www.theage.com.au/national/victoria/liberal-mp-on-final-warning-government-moves-motion-to-condemn-behaviour-20220324-p5a7gi.html>) on two recent occasions.

If you are in the Liberal Party's boy club, it's a freewheeling do what you like culture and protection racket.

The Liberal Party's internal morale is at an all-time low. Cancelling women like Deeming and the attempted cancellation of Renee Heath before the election tells the strong, articulate, non-woke women they need not apply.

Over the past twelve months, the voting public has learned more about who the Liberal Party wants to purge from its membership – seemingly a significant cohort of their traditional supporter base – than any particular policy or philosophical direction. Surely, the Liberal Party does not believe it can sack and cancel its way into government.

If Pesutto is foolish enough to stake his leadership on removing Deeming, he and all those sponsoring this motion should resign from the leadership if it fails.

Pesutto should have learned the lessons of Malcolm Turnbull. You can team up with the radical left and attack your colleagues for only so long. Once no one is left more offensive than you, then you'll be next. No level of appeasement will disarm the radical left. They will always have another campaign, another social justice cause and another excuse for big government to tell us all what to do.

Enough about the Nazi nonsense. It's a distraction.

When did standing up for women's rights and safety become politically unacceptable?

Lisa Morgan speaking at an anti-trans rally in Newcastle (Twitter)

A so-called gender critical activist has been caught on camera quoting Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf in a speech against trans rights at an anti-trans rally in Newcastle .

Dozens of anti-trans activists assembled outside the 1914 Memorial in the gardens of St Thomas' church in Newcastle's city centre on Sunday (January 15) between 12pm and 2pm.

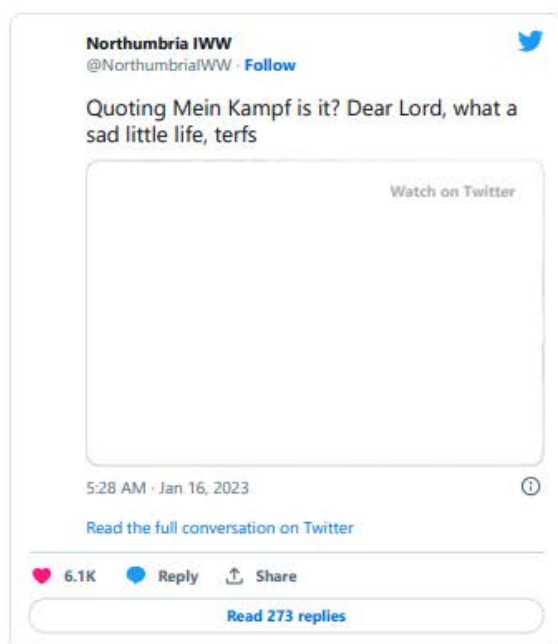

A huge group of counter-protesters – who waved Pride flags, banners and shouted pro-LGBTQ+ chants – was also in attendance and appear to have been based outside the nearby Newcastle City Council building, an estimated 400 metres away.

The event was part of the Let Women Speak tour by notorious anti-trans activist Posie Parker and featured several gender critical speakers who addressed the crowd, in front of a large, grey 'adult human female' banner.

During the event, one gender critical speaker – who has been identified as UK Guild of Hypnosis Practitioners (UKGH) chair Lisa Morgan – quoted Adolf Hitler's 1925 manifesto Mein Kampf.

Addressing the crowd, the hypnosis practitioner of 30 years said: "I know about language, and I know that this [gestures to counter-protesters] is based on something that we call the big lie.

"Do you know the big lie? The big lie was first described by Adolf Hitler in Mein Kampf.

"The big lie is such a big lie that ordinary people like us think, 'Well, that can't be a lie because I would never tell such a big lie as that. We only lie in small ways.'

"The big lie, well there is one big lie going on, and it was begun by men in the early part of the 20th century. It began when they had an erotic fantasy and they decided they were going to sell us the big lie – and what is the big lie?

"The big lie is that trans women are women. But they're not are they? They're men and we know that."

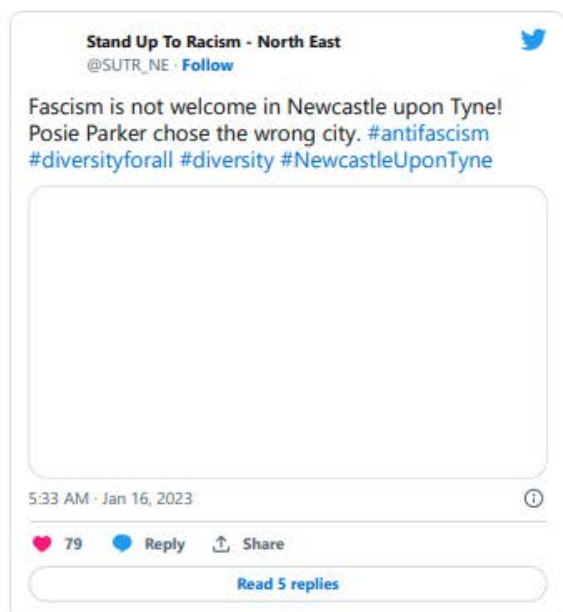

The term 'big lie' was coined by Hitler in Mein Kampf and was used by the German leader as a technique to describe the behaviour of Jewish people. Specifically, he accused Jews of using the 'big lie' to discredit Germany's efforts in World War I and blame the country's loss on general Erich Ludendorff.

It is widely believed this technique was used by the Nazis as part of their extensive propaganda to turn the German people against the Jews and justify the Holocaust.

Ms Morgan's use of Hitler's words come just days after the home secretary Suella Braverman was confronted by 83-year-old Holocaust survivor Joan Salter, over her use of language to describe refugees.

"When I hear you using words against refugees like 'swarms' and an 'invasion', I am reminded of the language used to dehumanise and justify the murder of my family and millions of others," Ms Salter said at the constituency event in Fareham, Hampshire.

The home secretary has refused to apologise.

One counter-protester, named Abbie, told PinkNews that the use of Hitler's ideas by anti-trans activists made both her – as well as the wider community in Newcastle – feel "angry".

"Who in the right mind quotes Hitler!?", she said.

At the same time, Abbie praised the sense of community felt at the counter-protest.

She explained: "I found the LGBTQ Community really came together to support each other for their rights.

"We were loud and proud.

"The police handled it all very well. On a personal level, it helped me find my voice to speak up for my trans friends. I'm happy I was able to support them."

A spokesperson for Newcastle City Council tells PinkNews it is "a safe and welcoming city that celebrates diversity and champions equality in all aspects of life, while not accepting any form of hate or discrimination."

But it also states it upholds a European Convention of Human Rights ruling which gives groups the right to demonstrate.

"As this demonstration took place in a public place, the council had no authority to prevent it from going ahead, regardless of whether or not the messages given out were consistent with our own values," it adds.

One man arrested at the protest

There was significant police presence at the event, with around 15 officers positioned between the two groups. One person was arrested, however Northumbria Police were unable to confirm to PinkNews which side the individual was from.

A spokesperson for the force said: "A 19-year-old man was arrested for a breach of the peace. He was later released."

Northern Pride director Ste Dunn said: "Northern Pride joined the large number of people and community groups who banded together to drown out the voices of the hateful protestors and speakers who came to Newcastle to try and cause upset in the city.

"While we are disappointed that they felt it necessary to do this, we are very proud of the fact that they were outnumbered by the crowds of people who came to support trans rights and behaved in a peaceful and positive way.

"Newcastle and the North East has strong support for all the LGBTQIA+ community and we hope that the small group of protestors will realise that and will never come back."
