Subject: Letter expressing my support for Moira Deeming MP

My name is Angela and I am writing to express my support for Moira Deeming MP.

I attended the Let Women Speak event on the Parliament steps on Saturday.

Women of all stripes lined up to speak about the effect which extreme transgender ideology is having on their lives, including Maori women, women from the Greens party, health workers and others. With shaking hands and wobbling voices, they approached the microphone to express their concerns about children's safety, to say that women are human females and that they did not want to be called 'menstruator' or have males in their bathrooms and changerooms.

Behind the women (and a few men), the police were in two rows, standing arms linked, and a row of horses, to try to hold back a furious crowd of trans activists who were yelling, throwing liquids and punching the police horses. There was a buffer zone of a few metres between us, which at times seemed dangerously thin.

Then, for all of five minutes, totally incomprehensibly, a group of masked men in black marched in formation through the buffer zone, with no opposition from police. They did the Hitler salute, and I remember being terrified that they had come to start violence. But after their stunt, they disappeared.

Women continued as we had been, speaking up into the microphone about our concerns about the men's movement that is transgenderism.

None of us had anything to do with the neo-Nazi group, the communist group, or any of the other groups which showed up on the day. We were as shocked as anyone when they marched through. Yet claims are being made that the organisers, or Moira Deeming MP, were somehow connected with these Nazi elements. This is not true.

Moira is a courageous MP and human being. She stands up for the rights of women and girls, and for freedom of speech. If she is expelled from the party, because of lies and smears, I will not be voting for the Victorian Liberals in future.

Yours sincerely,

Angela Dennis
