I Mehreen Saeed Faruqi, Senator, of

affirm:

- 1. I am the Applicant in these proceedings.
- 2. I have previously affirmed an affidavit in these proceedings on 3 October 2023.
- 3. Nothing in this affidavit is intended to waive legal professional privilege.
- 4. Shown to me at the time of affirming this affidavit and marked Exhibits "MF-2", "MF-3", "MF-4", "MF-5", "MF-6" and "MF-7" are bundles of documents to which I refer throughout this affidavit. Where I refer to documents in this affidavit, I do so by referencing the page numbers in Exhibits MF-2 to MF-7.
- 5. Unless otherwise indicated, I make this affidavit on my own knowledge, information and belief. Where I depose to matters on information and belief, I believe those matters to be true.

Background

- On 9 September 2022 at 4:05pm, Senator Hanson published a 'quote tweet' to the Twitter account '@PaulineHansonOz' which:
  - (a) responded to a tweet I published at 11:51am (AEST) that day (Faruqi Tweet); and
  - (b) stated "Your attitude appalls [sic] and disgusts me. When you immigrated to Australia you took every advantage of this country. You took citizenship, bought multiple homes, and a job in a parliament. It's clear you're not happy, so pack your bags and piss off back to Pakistan. PH" (Hanson Tweet).
- 7. Following, and apparently as a result of the publication of the Hanson Tweet, I have received directly, or been the subject, target or intended recipient of a significant volume of abusive material (including death threats, misogynistic and racially and sexually violent content). The reason I believe that the material was published as a result of the Hanson Tweet is because, much of that material:
  - (a) refers expressly to the Hanson Tweet and/or Senator Hanson;
  - (b) uses the same language that Senator Hanson used in the Hanson Tweet; and/or
  - (c) conveys the same sentiment and/or reiterates the substance of the Hanson Tweet, (Hate Material).

OFarrugia

- 8. While I have previously been the subject of abusive correspondence and online comments, the Hate Material commenced on 9 September 2022. I am still receiving and being the subject of online Hate Material from time to time, including as recently as 26 February 2024 (see page 634 of Exhibit MF-6). The reason I believe that this more recent material is Hate Material is because I have observed that this material contains some or all of the features referred to in the preceding paragraph. For example, the tweets included at pages 634-662 of Exhibit MF-6 which were published by various Twitter accounts between 6 November 2023 and 26 February 2024 all refer directly to Senator Hanson and/or the Hanson Tweet.
- 9. The Hate Material has been sent or published to:
  - (a) the phone number connected to my electoral office (My Office Phone);
  - (b) the inbox to the email address 'senator.faruqi@aph.gov.au' (My APH Email);
  - (c) Facebook, including the:
    - (i) Facebook page entitled 'Pauline Hanson's Please Explain' which can be accessed via the following link; https://www.facebook.com/PaulineHansonAu (Hanson Facebook); and
    - (ii) Facebook page entitled 'Senator Mehreen Faruqi' which can be accessed and downloaded via the following link; https://www.facebook.com/mehreenfaruqi (My Facebook);
  - (d) my Instagram profile '@mehreenfaruqi' which can be accessed via the following link; https://www.instagram.com/mehreenfaruqi/?hl=en (My Instagram);
  - (e) Twitter, including:
    - (i) the Twitter account '@paulinehansonoz' which can be accessed via the following link; https://twitter.com/PaulineHansonOz?ref src=twsrc%5Egoogle%7Ctwcamp%5Eserp%7Ctwgr%5Eauthor (Hanson Twitter);
    - (ii) my Twitter account '@MehreenFaruqi' which can be accessed via the following link;
       https://twitter.com/MehreenFaruqi?ref src=twsrc%5Egoogle%7Ctwcamp%5Eserp%7
       Ctwgr%5Eauthor (My Twitter);
    - (iii) the Twitter account '@marquelawyers' which can be accessed via the following link; https://twitter.com/marquelawyers?ref src=twsrc%5Egoogle%7Ctwcamp%5Eserp%7 Ctwgr%5Eauthor (Marque Twitter); and
    - (iv) the Twitter accounts of various other users.

Together, I refer to My Office Phone, My APH Email, Facebook, My Instagram and Twitter as the Platforms.

10. Exhibited at pages 9-825 to this affidavit are copies of the Hate Material.

Afarragia 3

Searches

- 11. I observed copies of the Hate Material by doing the following.
  - (a) Part of my role as a Senator is to regularly review the Platforms to monitor the material that is sent to me and/or published about me and to allow me to engage with my constituents where necessary. Through my review of the Platforms, I directly observed some of the Hate Material that was sent to me and/or published about me.
  - (b) I reviewed some of the Hate Material which was identified by my staff members through their review of the Platforms, and which they subsequently brought to my attention. To the extent my staff members identified the Hate Material, I am unable to recall the specific staff members that conducted these searches (as different staff members searched different Platforms on various dates).
  - (c) I reviewed some of the Hate Material which was identified by Marque Lawyers through its review of the Platforms, and which was subsequently brought to my attention.
- 12. Due to the volume of Hate Material that was sent to me and/or published about me, I am unable to recall the specific Hate Material I observed through each of the manners described in the preceding paragraph.

Subject: Nasty, spiteful, childish, insensitive and dishonest comments about Queen Elizabeth

Importance: High

Dear Ms. Islamist,

I read your childish, nasty comments that you cannot mourn the death of Queen Elizabeth II, as she has the leader of a racist Empire.

The Empire ended in 1948 with Indian independence, while Queen Elizabeth did not come to the throne until 1954.

Your type are malicious, nasty and spiteful. If you think Islam is better than the achievements of Britain's Imperial age, of which you are a beneficiary you should jump on your Camel and f. off to Pakistan and see how women are treated there. You will probably not be allowed out of the house again, if you are not beaten daily.

It saddens me greatly that Australia allows your sort to arrive there, it should have remained only for sensible, nice hard working people not spiteful bitches like yourself. F. off.

Sincerely

Dear Meereen,

Shame on you publicising the follow tweet on the day of her Majesty's Death

Condolences to those who knew the Queen.

I cannot mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples.

We are reminded of the urgency of Treaty with First Nations, justice & reparations for British colonies & becoming a republic.

With power comes responsibility, not using your political platform to push your personal agenda.

If you don't like this country and what it stands for, maybe you should consider moving back to Pakistan. Bit rich judging a person who serve her country and Commonwealth for 70 years compare to the appalling conditions in Pakistan in how they treat their people.

As tax payers, we deserve better from our leaders.

So next time you share your personal agendas remember there is a consequences of your words and hatred.

Subject: Racist!LOWLIFE

FARUKI

What a hate filled despicable RACIST person you are. Sitting in Parliament House leeching off the taxpayers of Australia and then calling all Australians racists and thieves.. HOW DARE YOU. Calling all people of Australia racists when YOU are the hate filled RACIST one. If YOU hate Australia and the people so much there are plenty of planes leaving the country. There would now be plenty to see you on one.

You are another reason hateful women like YOU should never be voted in and another reason to now view the majority of women as despicable creatures they are and should never be helped in any circumstances. You and others like you are the reason that no matter how dangerous and life threatening a female finds herself in I and many others would never come to their assistance. It would be women like YOU that would make up lies to have the person jailed as women are now doing. Also shows the filth that the Greens are and are determined to ruin our lives and Australia. Do you know how much politicians are hated in this country and you continue to make them hated more.

Do not forget Faruqi that the first person to die from hypothermia due to the GREENS making electricity unaffordable, especially for the elderly, YOU and the GREENS will have blood on your hands. The Greens are in no position to lecture or condemn anyone when the Greens are prepared to see people die and would be happy to see it.

AS YOU ARE THE SERVANT TO THE PEOPLE OF AUSTRALIA I DEMAND YOU STAND UP IN PARLIAMENT AND MAKE A GROVELLING APOLOGY TO ALL THE PEOPLE IN AUSTRALIA. I AM OUTRAGEOUSLY OFFENDED BY YOUR COMMENTS AND FIND IT OFFENSIVE TO CALL ME A RACIST.

Thankfully we have/had wonderful, lovely, caring and thoughtful women in our Parliament House such as Pauline Hanson and Jacinda Price and the late Kimberley Kitchen. They have high standards while you have none. Those women are a credit to the country and of high intelligence as has been seen many times.

99.9% of Coons are dole bludging alcoholics, who would NOT work on an iron-lung! A handful of them are GIVEN 'token' blackfella jobs just for political correctness and 'WOKE' causes, e.g. University jobs, politicians, etc., they don't actually EARN those jobs!

Aborigines are the most backward race on the Planet,....they hadn't even invented the 'wheel' when we arrived and SAVED them! They would still be running around the paddock throwing spears at each other if we hadn't SAVED them, and BUILT (White Australians did, not the Coons!) them the greatest Country on Earth! THEY (the Coons) should get down on their knees and THANK us for EVERYTHING that "WE" have given them and provided for THEM!

Your comments re the Queen are tasteless and inappropriate.

It is you who are unhinged!

You have totally damaged the Greens in my eyes.

Given your father was provided access to study in a Commonwealth country such as Australia and you yourself permitted to do so shows a total lack of respect and gratitude for what you have been offered in this country. Perhaps you should return to Pakistan where your comments might be more welcome. Why are you in the West when it is clear that you despise it? "Condolences to those who knew the Queen," she wrote on Twitter.

Pauline Hanson tells Senator to '*** off back to Pakistan' over comments about the Queen

Pauline Hanson has told a fellow Senator to "p*** off back to Pakistan" after the MP commented on the death of the Queen.

NCA NewsWire

Pauline Hanson has told Mehreen Farugi to "p--- off back to Pakistan" after the Greens senator called the Queen "a leader of a racist empire".

The One Nation leader took offence after the Pakistani-born MP tweeted that she would not mourn the death of the Queen.

"Condolences to those who knew the Oueen. I cannot mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples," Ms Faruqi posted.

"We are reminded of the urgency of Treaty with First Nations, justice and reparations for British colonies and becoming a republic."

Mehreen Farugi

Condolences to those who knew the Queen. I cannot mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples. We are reminded of the urgency of Treaty with First Nations, justice & reparations for British colonies & becoming a republic.

11:51 AM · Sep 9, 2022

Senator Hanson responded a few hours later, expressing "disgust" at the comment.

"Your attitude appals and disgusts me. When you immigrated to Australia you took every advantage of this country," she said.

"You took citizenship, bought multiple homes, and a job in a parliament. It's clear you're not happy, so pack your bags and p--- off back to Pakistan."

Some people backed Senator Hanson, including one person who wrote: "I 100 per cent agree with you. Nobody (especially her) should not be saying disrespectful stuff about the Queen. Think this person should just pack her back and go back to where she came from as we don't want that sort of person in our country."

Senator Pauline Hanson took a swipe at the Greens Senator over her comments about the Queen. Picture: NCA NewsWire/Gary Ramage

But others were critical of her response, including one person who commented: "Her tweet was in poor taste. But the 'go back where you came from' attitude sucks. Part of living in this country is free speech. Speaking about parts of the country you're upset about is better than apathy, at least she cares."

Other Greens MPs have made political comments, including Greens leader Adam Bandt.

"Rest In Peace Queen Elizabeth II. Our thoughts are with her family and all who loved her. Now Australia must move forward. We need Treaty with First Nations people, and we need to become a Republic," he tweeted.

It prompted Liberal MP Phillip Thompson to describe him as "a clown of the highest order".

Phillip Thompson OAM MP

you're a clown of the highest order and a human of the lowest form. Given you hate our nation so profoundly, I would encourage you to take a hike out of Australia and don't look back. I think the nation would join me in celebrating your departure.

The Australian Greens have not done themselves any favours with the inclusion of people such as yourself and Lidia Thorp, both of whom have lowered the standing of the Senate and the Australian Parliament. I hope that, unless you can show a willingness to be a positive influence for good in the Senate that the voters will see to it that you are a one term senator. I find your comments regarding the Queen extremely offensive. Australia has welcomed you into this country and has even elected you as a senator and you make comments regarding the Queen that are vile and disgusting. You are directing your comments to a sovereign who has world-wide respect and has been held by the ordinary people in the highest regards for some 70 years. How many Australians have died in wars defending our nation, soldiers who fought under flags that represent our history.

I suggest you resign, denounce your "racist" citizenship and take your hate and return to the country of your birth. Please go, we Australians does not need your kind here.

Senator,

my favourite people in the world are those who are happy to take tax payer's money in the form of high 6-figure salaries and then decry the system that pays them that money.

I'm sure the 'racist' colony that you live in is so awful as you sit in your tax payer-funded mansion, while you drive your expensive car and eat the best food.

I love people like you, you are such strong role models....you're just amazing

I'd love to move to another country, oh, say, like Pakistan, be paid $275,000 a year, be given a palace to live in, a nice car and the best food round the clock.....then criticize that country 24/7

That'd be bliss

have a nice day:)

Here you sit, an immigrant from Pakistan, in one of the luckiest countries on earth, a living example of the privileged life that anyone can live here, whilst achieving all of their dreams, goals, ambitions.

You are a product of our education system; a property owner in our society; a representative in our state legislative system and seemingly proud of your achievements and the country which you purport to call home.

Presumably, you or your parents chose our country because they thought it offered a great future for you (whilst also accepting its British heritage).

Surely, based on your comments about our recently deceased Queen, you should resign, sell your property and move home to Pakistan, where obviously you would be happier.

If you cannot hold your head high in our beautiful, privileged country, you really should not remain here.

Dear Senator

It must be very sad for you personally with the death of the Queen.

Yes the British brought so much to the Subcontinent. Ending the practice of slavery, the forced immolation of widows on their husbands funeral pyres, bringing in democracy, modern industry and the notion of individual freedom. Unfortunately of course the subcontinent has slipped so badly on many issues since the independence movement in the 40s. Yes sad Pakistan is now a misogynistic jihadist supporting nutter of a political entity. Supporting the Taliban , no woman's rights, I know that it must of been devasting for the Queen to see what was once a potential Commonwealth leading country become a religious racist misogynist country.

Yes the Queen's legacy of love, freedom, lives on. In Australia anyway. You must be so sad. Oh well we were lucky to be part of her legacy. Poor women of Pakistan. If only the male misogynist religious nutters in charge had stayed true to British Commonwealth values women's lives there would be so much better. You must be devastated. God Save the King.

Sent from Mail for Windows

In the first televised Christmas Broadcast in 1957, a young Queen Elizabeth II said something remarkably prescient and poignant:

'The trouble is caused by unthinking people, who carelessly throw away ageless ideals as if they are old and outworn machinery. They would have religion thrown aside, morality, and personal and public life made meaningless, honesty counted as foolishness, and self-interest set up in place of self-restraint.'

The late monarch, unlike so many in the public sphere, lived as she spoke.

At 96, and presumably gravely unwell, she nevertheless summoned the energy to meet the new UK Prime Minister and her namesake, officially endowing Liz Truss the right to form government. Truss was the Queen's 15th prime minister, the first being Sir Winston Churchill.

Two days later, the Queen passed away.

Her stoicism was on full display, as she kept her personal struggles private and performed her public duties to the very edge of her capacity.

In contrast to her fortitude and reserve, it took virtually no time at all for people to begin dancing on her coffin for obvious and cynical political purposes.

The Australian Greens leader Adam Bandt, a few hours after her passing, was thrusting forward the idea of Australia becoming a republic on Twitter. The same senator Bandt recently refused to have the Australian flag placed behind him at press conferences.

Greens senator Mehreen Faruqi went further, stating, 'Condolences to those who knew the Queen. I cannot mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land, and wealth of colonised peoples.'

These messages only succeeded in showing that the Greens Party is led by people who lack basic human sympathy while understanding apparently very little of history.

Bandt, of English and German descent, should perhaps reflect on how the small island of the UK, headed by Sir Winston Churchill and the Queen's father, George VI, essentially stood alone for two years against one of the vilest, most openly racist, and genocidal regimes that was Nazi Germany, ultimately ensuring its demise. It was in large part due to the good relations that the UK had with its existent or former colonies, such as America, Canada, India, Australia, and New Zealand, that it was able to rally a coalition of volunteer forces to defeat the Axis powers.

The Axis also included the equally racist and bloodthirsty (because – gasp! – people other than 'whites' can be racists) Japanese Imperial Forces, which had killed, maimed, brutalised, and raped uncountable millions of civilians across China, Korea, and Southeast Asia. The British lost tens of thousands of troops fighting the Japanese in Asia. The Fourteenth Army, the British and Commonwealth's main fighting force in the region, was perhaps the most diverse in history, with some 40 languages being spoken by its soldiers.

Faruqi, who emigrated from Pakistan and who is a Muslim, should perhaps remember that Islam only entered what is now Pakistan through the conquest and subjugation of the Sindh Kingdom in the eighth century C.E., led by Muhammad ibn Qasim.

She might also remember the almost 800-year period of the al-Andalus when the Berber commander Tariq ibn Ziyad subjugated the indigenous Visigoth Kingdom and the Muslims ruled most of the Iberian Peninsula as an imperialist power. Or the Ottoman Empire, one of the largest expansionist empires in history.

The 600-year-long Sunni Muslim Empire conquered large swathes of North Africa, including Egypt, as well as European territories that included Greece, Bulgaria, Hungary, and Romania, and had reached the gates of Vienna before being repelled by a coalition of European forces in 1683. Greece only regained independence in 1829. Other European territories were lost by the Ottoman Empire during the Balkan Wars, as recently as 1913.

So, when Faruqi spouts cheap, prefabricated insults like 'racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples', while she might not feel a fool, she certainly looks like one.

Anyone who knows anything about Elizabeth II should have an inkling that one of her major achievements was to have accelerated the decolonisation process, overseeing the transition to independence of over 20 countries. While colonialism has been tried by almost every notable civilisation, from Portugal to Turkey to Japan, it must be noted that the decolonialisation of the British Empire is unique for its comparative peacefulness. It is not an accident that the Commonwealth of Nations remains a thriving entity.

Perhaps it is easier and more emotionally satisfying for those on the farthest corners of the Left to operate under the delusion of a black-and-white interpretation of history and global affairs. But reality and truth are stubborn things that will not simply change to placate brittle egos. And the insistence of a false reality, whether out of ignorance or cynicism, only does harm to all the virtues the Queen stated back in 1957 – morality, honesty, and self-restraint in both personal and public life.

The Queen, on the other hand, lived up to those virtues.

Her last 18 months must have been very difficult. She lost her husband of more than seven decades only last year; she had to deal with the public disgrace of the credible accusations of sexual assault pointed at her son Andrew; she had Covid earlier in the year; and she had to endure the relentless and vague mud-flinging from Meghan Markle and her grandson Harry. Yet, throughout these trying times, she always carried out her duties immaculately, without a moment of self-pity. In her last days she reminded me of Tennyson's Ulysses, which ends stirringly:

Tho' much is taken, much abides; and tho'

We are not now that strength which in old days

Moved earth and heaven, that which we are, we are;

One equal temper of heroic hearts,

Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will

To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Despite those who try to use her death to divide, the passing of the woman whose understated merits has only coalesced peoples around the world, across class, across race, and across creed.

If only some of our modern-day politicians had an iota of the grace, wisdom, stoicism, and self-restraint of Queen Elizabeth II. May she rest in peace.

I understand your position and sentiment regarding the queen. What I'm wondering is if you felt this way, why is this the first we've heard? Your capitalising on an old ladies death to further your own agenda and it's revolting. What's more you are in the wrong country to be making those sorts of statements. I rarely agree with Pauline but on this I am right there with her. Your timing is poor, your motives are suspect and perhaps most importantly the reality you describe hasn't been relevant for a long time. If you don't like this country or it's cultural identity then leave. You won't be missed.

"As I told the Guardian, Mehreen Faruqi showed extremely poor judgment with her insensitive and highly offensive statement about the Queen and as is so typical of pants-wetting Greens, now that she's been called out she's pretending to be a victim. It's classic 'Karen' behaviour: all entitlement and no responsibility.

Mehreen Faruqi is not a victim of anything. Faruqi is just another rich, privileged, out-of-touch Greenie faithfully executing her dear leader's strategy to disrespect and insult the institutions which have helped make Australia one of the most socially inclusive and diverse nations in the world, including the very institutions which allowed her to come to Australia and make it her home."

I and many others totally support Pauline Hanson's view of you. Australia has been kind to you and others. If you don't feel the same you are welcome to pack your bags and go to where you came from. We are a tolerant race and as a minister your comments are shameful and like most greens never warranted.

Dear Madam, I rarely agree with Pauline Hanson, however in this case she is on the money. We have a saying here in Australia, if you can't say anything nice, you don't say anything. Perhaps it's lost in translation. Their should be tests or qualifications to allow people to vote, you my dear are a prime example of that. Those like you and we're not talking colour or race, (although your type love to play the race card at the drop of a hat, another Australian term you made need help with), we're talking ignorant, insensitive, grubby little people, that are the last who should be in or elected to a Political Party. Obviously the Greens would be the only Party that would have you. You're in good company with the other radical lunatics of that Party. You should fall on your sword both literary and figuratively. Enough time wasted on your type. Jack Kelly. Not a royalist however a very proud Australian.

Subject: RE - Pauline Hanson: "Piss off back to Pakistan"

Dear Ms Faruqi,

Pakistan was "a diverse plethora of faiths" before Mohammedan colonisers violently "stole the land, lives and wealth of its people" and turned it into the 96.2% Islamically-homogenous hellhole of religious intolerance you saw fit to escape from:

"Before the arrival of Islam beginning in the 8th century, the region compromising Pakistan was home to a diverse plethora of faiths, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism and Zoroastrianism"

"The Arab conqueror Muhammad bin Qasim conquered Sindh in 711 CE. The Pakistan government's official chronology claims this as the time when the foundation of Pakistan was laid. The Early Medieval period (642–1219 CE) witnessed the spread of Islam in the region."

It would be an interesting exercise to compare the progress of human rights in Australia in 200 years under a British monarchy to the peaceful progress of human rights in Pakistan after 1,300 years of Islam...

Oh look! They've got Islamic terrorism, just like us. Who knew?

"The Messenger of Allah married Mulaykah. She was young [12yo] and beautiful. One of the Prophet's wives came to her and said, 'Are you not ashamed to marry a man who killed your father during the day he conquered Mecca?' She therefore took refuge from him."

Sahih al-Bukhari 7142, Book 93, Hadith 6

The practices of the Prophet Muhammad, including his habits, statements and characteristics.

"Prophet Muhammad is the ideal leader and it is the duty of every Muslim to emulate him. The Prophet Muhammad is a model of correct attitude and behavior as described to us in the Quran, as he is considered the living example of the Quran. Our relationship to the Prophet, therefore, according to the doctrine of the Perfect Man is as a teacher and student. Thus anyone trying to achieve a Perfect level should closely examine the life and actions of the Prophet. You don't mourn the women who die in Pakistan. The oppressed women, the women who have their innocence stolen, their lives stolen. Pakistan your own place of birth.

So it's little wonder you wouldn't mourn the Queen. The same woman you swore your allegiance to, you hypocrite.

If anyone is racist you are.

You lied in your oath . So then resign, I don't want you in the public purse .

Basically if you don't like Australia then leave. It's that simple. You are happy to criticise everyone, but when someone else criticises you. It's not right.

Leave then...

I have no respect for someone like your self who lied when swearing on there oath..

Who asked you to mourn the late Queen? What you think is of no consequence to most of people. Do we care what you think, absolutely not because you do not count. How truly amazing you immigrated to a country that you truly despise because of the shocking past, overseen by a monarch who was in place 38 years before you even came here. That is truly amazing and really logical is it not? Or did you just like to punish yourself by taking the citizenship of this Country? You aren't by any chance a member of Mensa are you?

Clearly you are a woman of no grace, no dignity, no class and no manners. Altogether this adds up to the perfect example of an ignorant, pathetic person trying to insinuate and inflict themselves on a population that was good enough to take them in. We didn't invite you, you asked to come here. Don't forget your place.

I read your disgraceful, disgusting and ill-thought out comments on twitter about Queen Elizabeth so I thought I'd look you up.

1300 ignorant fools voted for you and that allowed you to enter the Senate. What a joke! Your election is further proof that we must abolish compulsory voting so idiots that have no interest in politics aren't forced to vote. Naturally you joined the looney party led by that half-wit Bandt. By the way have you recruited Thorpe to join your circus. She'd fit in perfectly.

All you bitter, twisted individuals who want us to make up for what happened hundreds of years ago all seem to have the same word in your speel - reparations! Money, money, money. That's really what it's all about isn't it!

From what you wrote it's become quite obvious that intelligence isn't one of your fortes but ignorance definitely is. Anyone with a modicum of intelligence and a basic understanding of history would know that the past hundreds of years were the years of exploration, conquering and governing parts of the new world. In case you didn't know colonisation was not illegal back then. Similarly in hundreds of years from now people will look back and wonder and possibly dispute what we're doing now.

Taking your failed logic further people would be continually apologising for previous generations for what they've done.

Just for your benefit if it was not illegal in past times to do certain things then future generations do not have to apologise for anything and nor should they.

Your comment 'justice and reparations for British colonies' is, as I said, all about money!

The referendum on a Voice will also fail. We don't have a form of apartheid here where certain sections of the population have a fast track to influence legislation or change laws. Non-indigenous people don't have a lesser standing in this country.

Similarly becoming a republic is also wishful thinking and doomed to failure once again as support has only ever been lukewarm at best. Particularly when we have such a large and ever growing aging population who will not vote for a republic.

Maybe before you criticise the history of other countries take a good look at your own - Pakistan. One of its claims to fame is harbouring terrorists. The most famous being Bin Laden. Something you can be really proud of.

I support Pauline Hanson's disgust in your twitter comments. I suggest you consider her advice and add that you join a political party in Pakistan. You'll have your work cut out to gain reparations for their injustices! Who knows you might even garner more than 1300 votes!

I suppose I shouldn't be too surprised considering you must be a couple of sheep short in the top paddock for espousing the Greens policies all of which have been irrefutably debunked by our emeritus academics and subject experts not influenced by Marxism or Government money.

I am always at a loss to understand why supposedly intelligent people haven't noticed that every Country in the world that has adopted Socialism has been devastated, the last being Venezuela, once the second best economy in the world, now a total economic wreck with tyranny ruling.

You've also obviously missed your history lessons which would have shown you that every Country in the world has been invaded, many several times - Britain by the Vikings, Romans, Saxons, and Normans for example.

We, however are the only Country in the world that has been made to suffer 200+ years of guilt and paid out billions of dollars in reparations to this 3% minority who mostly are living the dream with hot and cold running water, electricity, housing, education, motor vehicles, health cover and much much more.

Not bad for a civilisation that progressed nowhere in at least 60,000 years.

During the Queen's reign Britain actually vastly decolonized. I suggest you add that to your research.

You should be ashamed of yourself, speak about something you should have more knowledge about ie, The Taliban and their treatment of women or similar in Pakistan , you wouldn't have the guts.

Senator Faruqi,

I am writing to inform you that I take offence at the lies in your tweet following the death of the Queen.

You accuse the Queen of being the leader of a racist empire built on the stolen lives, land, wealth of colonised people. You are no doubt ignorant of the fact that the Act abolishing slavery received Royal Assent on 28 August 1833. Australia owes its prosperity, love of freedom, & strength as a democracy to the example of the Constitutional monarchy of Britain, our mother country. Former British colonies in Africa & Asia owe much to Britain, & are happy to remain part of the Commonwealth of Nations.

Like many other Australians, I take offense at foreign immigrants who move to Australia, prosper, then turn around & disrespect our treasured institutions.

I don't often agree with Senator Pauline Hanson, but I fully endorse her tweet encouraging you to leave this country which has been so good to you, Yours Faithfully, Stuart Allen From:Phillip Daniel <goldman5391@gmail.com>Sent:Wednesday, 28 September 2022 8:13 PM

Dear Senators,

I have attached the Notice of Motion submitted by both of you to the Senate in an effort to censure Pauline Hanson. A few questions for you both.

- 1. In your motion and tweets it mentions racism. Where in Hanson's tweet was the colour of your skin mentioned.
- 2. Why do those of the left resort to the "racism" card when they are challenged? Seems like the course of action someone with no ability to make an argument would take.
- 3. Larissa, it seems to me that the tweets by your colleague Faruqi in 2016 & 2017 would include you, if you are white. She doesn't think much of you I'd say.
- 4. Larissa, maybe I have it wrong. Are you white or do you identify as some other colour?
- 5. Re point 2 of the motion immigrants are welcome here but attitudes such as yours are not. I am not in the least bit surprised you left Pakistan who would want to live in such a backward country but remember it was this country that made you and not the other way around. It seems you came here just to perpetuate the same useless ideologies you supposedly escaped from.

The last thing we need in Australia is an idiot race baiter such as Faruqi. The colour of her skin is completely irrelevant. She is just a low level human being unworthy of a place in our parliament.

For the record I am happy with Senator Hanson's comments as they do reflect my opinion regarding Faruqi's comments on twitter. If you need a hand getting back to Pakistan please let me know as I am happy to contribute to your fare.

Yours sincerely,

Yet more hypocrisy from the Australian Greens Party. Firstly, Queen Elizabeth was not alive when Australia was settled. Your initial comments were inaccurate, offensive and intended to evoke a reaction. You then got one from Senator Hanson and you cry 'racism'. If you can dish it out you should be able to take it. Not to mention you dancing around the far more serious allegations that Senator Thorpe abused an Aboriginal Elder. The Greens are about nothing of substance. Do as I say not as I do.

Hello Senator Faruqi,

I have included Senator Hanson in this email because whilst I do not agree with all of her views and approaches. I fully support her right to respond to your comments.

Like you I am also a migrant to this country.

I too have settled here and enjoy the rights, a really great way of life and the freedoms this country affords.

I want to fully support our democracy and beliefs in Australia

My whole family found your recent comments about Queen Elizabeth and the rant about monarchy and British empire abuses to be hugely disappointing.

Yes it was outright colonialism over those 300 years. Yes the English unceremoniously marched out in 1947.

but look at the madness and mayhem and terrible atrocious abuses that then prevailed by the people's of India and Pakistan.

Every empire and Dynasty has dark story's. You would no doubt know of the Indian empires and Dynasty's which were no different.

But do I mention the 3000 yr old Caste system which sadly despite being outlawed still exists TODAY?

You note you received an avalanche of comments, does that not tell you something about the bad feeling and resentment felt about your comments that you 'whipped up?' ( not Pauline Hanson who responded )

Have you read the recent human rights watch world report 2021 about Pakistan about serious issues TODAY?

You make No mention of your absolutely hopeless freedom to rights of expression in Pakistan

No mention about the restrictions to the freedom of assembly

You should be very thankful you can freely stand up and say what you do - but please dont complain when others use their democratic rights to call you out on what you say.

In your home country which you left presumably in search of a better life, you could be locked up TODAY for the words used against the state

Your own country illegally and forcefully recently removed 2400 migrants back to Afganistan citing "no room". Is that not a "Go Back To Your Own Country" but forcefully delivered??

Please - You have no room to lecture others

The Pakistan government remains totally corrupt - you should be thankful to have found an alternative based on British democracy here in Australia

What about your home country rights abuses in slavery???

An estimated 2.1 MILLION are enslaved in 'modern Pakistan.' TODAY (global Slavery index 2016)

In India TODAY the estimate is staggering 18 Million for heavens sake (Asia Society )

So yes the East India company and the British Government was very wrong then back then.

BUT again what about now!!!!

5000 women PER YEAR die TODAY at your compatriots hands due to domestic violence in Pakistan - what does that tell you about social issues in your home country versus other more democratic countrys you are choosing to vilify whilst ignoring this fact?

You still have public hanging for goodness sake, massive Sectarian violence, religious discrimination, 1000's of forced religious conversions of young girls (yet cases don't get hearing in court)

ALL of this happens TODAY in Pakistan not in the past - you should look at what can be done to fix things for the better today

If compared today who has the better record?

Women rank 167 out of 170 TODAY in terms of women's health and well-being (women peace and security index) with 28% suffering some form of abuse

I Could go on

So please be thankful that you have the right to stand up and complain about others past misdoings -

However I will not stand by and be lectured by you standing on a public lectern without a response

Dear Senator Faruqi

I heard you speak in Parliament.

Comments made in the wake of Queen Elizabeth II's death by Greens Senator Mehreen Faruqi have been slammed as "insensitive" and "ignorant". In a social media post just hours after Her Majesty's death was announced, Ms Faruqi said she can't "mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples".

"Condolences to those who knew the Queen," she wrote on Twitter."

I cannot mourn the leader of a racist empire built on stolen lives, land and wealth of colonised peoples.

"We are reminded of the urgency of Treaty with First Nations, justice & reparations for British colonies & becoming a republic.

"The Senator's tweet prompted outrage given how soon it was published after Her Majesty's death.

Speaking to SkyNews.com.au, the Institute of Public Affairs' Gideon Rozner said the "unhinged" rant was embarrassing for an Australian Senator.

"Mehreen Faruqi, Adam Bandt and the Greens should give it a rest. Just take the day off," he said.

"Mehreen Faruqi's unhinged and pig-ignorant contributions would be embarrassing for a second-year arts student, let alone a federal senator.

"The Greens' perennial nihilism and historical revisionism may appeal to the 10 per cent of Australians who vote for them, but will always be toxic for the mainstream."

I agree with Senator Hanson's and Sky News observations regarding your comments. The Greens you identify with and the Socialist Left ideology you subscribe to and promote, aim to see the demise of democracy. Green's dislike of democratic principles are frequently spoken. Party views always agitate for Green's agenda that never satisfy.

Labor Government, with Greens support want, 'Voices' 'Treaty,' Third Parliamentary Chamber, (certainly activist aims) will divide, never unite Australia.

You chose to immigrated to Australia, enjoyed the benefits of democracy and have succeeded in achieving you ambitions.

Many Australians do not share similar success.

Queen Elizabeth 11 has left the legacy of a world leader unsurpassed in history committed to devotion, service and duty in her 70 year reign, as head of the Commonwealth of Nations. Talk of colonized peoples does not apply to the Queen, despite actions of countries. Colonization resulting in 'stolen lives, land and wealth' is established historical fact as old as time itself.

The following, although not specifically directed at yourself, nevertheless could collectively in a general sense apply.

Below is a letter passed onto me by another " True Blue Aussie " .

Letter to the Editor and every Australian, by the True Blue Aussie. So many letter writers have explained how this land is made up of immigrants. Maybe we should turn to our history books and point out to people why today's Australian is not willing to accept the # new kind of immigrant any longer.

Back in 1900 (after federation) when there was a rush from all areas of Europe to come to Australia, people had to get off a ship and stand in a long line in Sydney, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth and be documented. Some would even get down on their hands and knees and kiss the ground. They made a pledge to uphold the laws and support their new country in good and bad times. They made learning English a primary rule in their new Australian households and some even changed their names to blend in with their new home. They had waved good bye to their birth place to give their children a new life and did everything in their power to help their children assimilate into one culture.

Nothing was handed to them. No free lunches, no welfare, no labour laws to protect them. All they had were the skills, craftsmanship and desire they had brought with them to trade for a future of prosperity.

Most of their children came of age when World War II broke out. Australians fought alongside men whose parents had come straight over from Germany, Italy, France, Japan, Czechoslovakia, Russia, Sweden, Poland and so any other places.

None of these first generation Australians ever gave any thought about what country their parents had come from. They were Australians fighting Hitler, Mussolini and the Emperor of Japan. They were defending Freedom as one people.

When we liberated France, no-one in those villages was looking for the Ukrainian-Australian or the German-Australian or the Irish-Australian. The people of France saw only Australians. And we carried one flag that represented our country. Not one of those immigrant sons would have thought about picking up another country's flag and waving it to represent who they were.

It would have been a disgrace to their parents who had sacrificed so much to be here. These immigrants truly knew what it meant to be an Australian.

Here we are in 2015 with a new kind of immigrant who wants the same rights and privileges, but not to learn or speak English. They want to achieve it by playing with a different set of rules, one that includes an Australian passport and a guarantee of being faithful to their mother country.

Moslems, particularly extremists would impose Sharia law, Islamic beliefs.

That's not what being an Australian is all about. Australians have been very open-hearted and openminded regarding immigrants, whether they were fleeing poverty, dictatorship, persecution, or whatever else makes us think of those aforementioned immigrants who truly did ADOPT our country, our flag, our morals and our customs, and left their wars, hatred, and divisions behind. I believe that the immigrants who landed in Australia in the early 1900s deserve better than that for the toil, hard work and sacrifice, they made in their day, compared with more recent arrivals, who EXPECT to get all the welfare they can receive. I think they would be appalled that they are being used as an example by those waving foreign country flags, fighting foreign battles on our soil, making Australians change to suit their religions and cultures, and wanting to change our country's fabric by claiming discrimination when we do not give in to their demands. It's about time we get real and stand up for our forefathers rights, we are AUSTRALIANS! Lest we forget it!! NO MORE POLITICAL CORRECTNESS GARBAGE. NO MORE not saying CHRISTMAS in our stores and in our schools. eat pork, I drink beer and I want my Australia back!

Date: Wednesday, 3 May 2023 6:54:09 PM

Mehreen.

How far would an Australian get in Pakistan if they said they weren't going to mourn the death of some great paki muslim leader I wonder? A mob of ultra-conservative muslims would probably gang up and chop your head off. Right?

By starting this RIDICULOUS lawsuit (for a mere tweet you didn't like) you've actually drawn even more attention to yourself!

It's clear to me that all you want is money you greedy cow! (no offence to cows) But how is getting more money going to change anything?

Or is that all you came here for, to use Australia to get richer?

We have our principles and limits here too you know, and you just crossed one!!

What you muslims need to learn is that setting or having limits with people (or simply having a difference of opinion with a muslim) is not racist, it's not illegal. You're not some protected strain of humans somehow "exempt" from all forms of criticism. Understand?

Here in the West, we absolutely can and will criticise islam, muslims, and whatever we damnwell please.

If you're not happy here with your 'treatment' by other members of society, perhaps you really should pack your bags and piss off back to pakistan?! A place where honour killings happen all the time. A place where minority Hindus are discriminated against (and a darn sight more than any against any minority muslims living in India, that's for damn sure). Love jihad (forced islamic conversions), islamic terrorism, etcera.

People HAVE HAD ENOUGH of this politically correct bullshit alright.

We've reached peak tolerance for this new culture of victimisation. The news is full to the brim of sob stories like yours when instead it should be covering the almost daily terror attacks ocurring in the name of islam.

We're completely over it. Or if you want to sue people, if that's your main aim, perhaps you should bugger off over to America instead? Would you be happier there? Or not?

Why is it that muslims never seem to be happy wherever they go? I am starting to think that muslims really should stay in their respective islamic countries. Don't even come here. Or are you secretly islamophobic? Is that why you left pakistan?

It's you muslims that started ruining multiculturalism with your intolerant ways. Yes you started it. Just look at Saudi Arabia where non-muslims are not allowed to enter certain areas of worship.

We were actually very tolerant, but the more we get to know what muslims are really like, the more conservative we become.

Once again, disagreeing with muslims (or trans people, or gays for that matter) is not a crime, but you are trying to make it one.

You weren't "discriminated against" because Hanson wasn't selling anything! Where were you refused service for anything? Did you attend a job interview and got rejected on the basis of your race alone? No. The fact is, you weren't. You're simply making it up as you go along! You were offended by some hurty words? Harden the fuck up like everybody else.

I hope Senator Hanson counter sues you for defamation.

I used to vote for greens, I really did. For many years. But I got older and wiser. I won't be voting for insufferable prats like you anymore.

I suggest that instead of wasting court's time YOU DO SOMETHING REALLY USEFUL AND YOU GO AND PLANT A BLOODY TREE SOMEWHERE FFS.

Dear Senator,

I hope you will be paying your own expenses in this action. Perhaps you should look at your own tweet which insulted pretty much every citizen of the Commonwealth claiming it is a racist empire, etc., etc. Get a mirror, look at your home country. Pakistan is a moslem country, thus as a moslem you are taught to hate Christians, you beat sinners with canes, chop hands off and undertake other despicable practices.

You may have renounced your Paki citizenship in order to sneak into the Australian Parliament, but clearly you still belong to the misogynistic so-called religion of islam. Why not fight for your sisters in Afghanistan instead of trying to break down the civilised culture of Australia. We need people here to build our country, not to come and run it down. Maybe you should think hard about what Senator Hanson said and go back to your Republic of Pakistan if you think our Head of State is so despicable. At least we don't murder or imprison our leaders as standard practice.

People like you make me sick.

You clearly don't deserve to live in Australia.

We have many great immigrants here. In fact we are all immigrants to Australia aren't we?

Including Aboriginals. They just walked here earlier than the rest of us.

But you are a lousy immigrant.

Ignorant. Rude. Lazy and frankly worthless.

I listen to Parliament regularly on ABC radio. One of the few balanced services the ABC still delivers and I would have an issue with every one of your speeches or rowdy interjections.

You have nothing of value to add to this country unlike most of the other immigrants we receive.

You are a burden on the tax payer and a divisive disrupting influence.

You are not wanted here and you should return to where you belong.

Go back to suicide bombing in the local market square – apparently Pakistan's only known export to the rest of the world.

You know it's true.

Dear Senator,

I did not read racism into the Pauline Hanson's tweet to you. It was a tweet defending the Queen and this country's progression since colonization. That was the past, that was how the world became settled and we cannot forever be held accountable, especially not the Queen. Australia was settled long before the Queen was born. She owed no apology and you came to Australia, you worked hard and you reaped the benefits of living in this great country, this free democratic country that came from a colony. I feel the same as Pauline, that if anyone who comes here and is not happy with the way things have developed, by all means, leave, and find somewhere that hasn't been tainted by the scourge of evil colonization, and for goodness sakes do not insult our wonderful, compassionate, dearly departed and much loved Queen. Pauline's remarks were not racist, she did not tell you to leave because of your race, she told you to leave because she felt you were complaining about the Queen and Australia, a country that has given you so much, yet you seem to show contempt for.

Yours sincerely, Lees Delage

I as an Australian demand that you give a written and verbal Apology to the Australian people, you had no right to disrespect her majesty Queen Elizabeth 2 in our parliament, you had not one problem coming to our country and we the Australian people made you welcome with open arms,

At what point did you gain the right to verbally attack our past sovereign the Queen... If you have a problem, with our way of life, why come to Australia "why" please explain we opened our country to you with your statements, you should be suspended from duties as you do not represent Australia

Ms. Hanson Had every right to object to your comment about Queen Elizabeth 2 she was correct in her actions to defend our way of life

Dear Senator,

I refer to your objections to Pauline Hanson's critique of your comment after the death of QEII.

I speculate that a huge number of fair dinkum, honest and decent Australians, of all colours and creeds, would support Hanson's critique up to the hilt.

I am not a member of Hanson's political party, but neither am I an admirer of the Green's. Suffice to say that, as a dedicated Green's member, and Deputy at that, it is obvious that you have a somewhat bloated opinion of your value, not only to Australian politics, but to Australia generally.

Thus the sooner you take Hanson's advice and relinquish your Australian citizenship the better. I suspect you underestimate the number who would be cheering.

Yours sincerely,

Peter M. Wargent.

RE: ATTACK ON A REAL AUSTRALIAN

I refer to your attack on Senator Hanson – see below – for expressing an opinion which is shared by those of us who, like her, are 'REAL AUSTRALIANS' and I say to you that I find it utterly offensive and totally unacceptable that a migrant can come into my country, become a government senator and then proceed to degrade our Head of State and an incumbent Prime Minister, and then object when she is called out for her actions. MY COUNTRY WOULD BE MUCH BETTER OFF WITHOUT YOU AND THE POLITICAL PARTY TO WHICH YOU BELONG.

Deputy Greens leader sues Pauline Hanson over mean tweet

Senator Faruqi alleges the One Nation Leader breached Racial Discrimination Act, seeks $150,000 for charity and anti-racism education.

Senator Mehreen Faruqi is suing Pauline Hanson for racial discrimination after the One Nation Leader tweeted that Faruqi should "pack your bags and piss off back to Pakistan".

The Deputy Greens Leader alleges Hanson breached section 18C of the Racial Discrimination Act which makes it unflawful to act in a way that might reasonably insult or humiliate someone on the basis of race or ethnicity.

Faruqi is demanding Hanson pay $150,000 to a charity as well as undertake anti-racism education.

In a statement released this week, Faruqi said she had "taken on bullies" her whole life and had no choice but to take on the One Nation leader.

"I refuse to let Senator Hanson get away with racist bullying and harassment," she said.

"Senator Hanson crossed a line when she tweeted those hateful comments and I am hoping the Federal Court puts an end to this pattern of bigotry."

Hanson's remark to Faruqi was in reponse to a tweet the Green Senator posted after the death of Queen Elizabeth II.

Pakistan-born Faruqi said she would not mourn the Queen who "presided over a racist regime build on stolen land and stolen wealth."

Hanson shot back that Austarlia had been good to Faruqi, giving her the chance to own multiple houses and work as a parliamentarian. She then said that if Faruqi didn't like it in Australia, she should "pack your bags and piss off back to Pakistan".

Pauline Hanson has defended her comments and denied that she is racist.

While Faruqi accuses Hanson of being a bully, Faruqi herself has a chequered past on the social media platform.

She once posts a message that then Prime Minister Scott Morrison should "F__k off".

If all you can do is criticise Australia, its people and our way of life why not go back where you came from, somewhere you can be happy.

Nobody is interested in listening to some whinging, carping immigrant bitch who finds fault with everything and fails to contribute anything to society. Your trouble is that you arrogantly think Australia and Australians should bend and change to your will and thinking.

If you don't like it here PISS OFF BACK TO THE DUNG HEAP YOU EMERGED FROM AND THE SOONER THE BETTER. Oh, forgot you are being paid mega bucks to sit on your backside in Canberra and spout claptrap once in a while. Senator Faruqi.

Your criticisms of Australia and the Monarchy from where we are today is way out of line. We enjoy the riches and free safe lifestyle today from the British Empire just like America.

Imagine if our country had been invaded by another country? We could and the First Nation people could be a hell of a lot worse off.

The aboriginals had no riches but they are supported with over $3 Billion a year. The British settlement was 200 yrs ago. Do we go on about the Germans and Japanese from the World Wars? No.

Why did you come to Australia instead of staying in Pakistan?

You should be very grateful for being allowed into Australia and the lifestyle and riches you have grown accustomed to in this country. Not criticise our country or it's history.

So pull your head in and get off your pulpit and show some gratitude. Oh and stop pulling out this "racist" card. It is very tiresome and pathetic.

You are getting very well paid by the tax paying people so get out there and serve the people. One Lydia Thorpe is enough for everyone.

Frankly, you are a disgrace to Australia, and as Pauline Hanson said, quote:

It's this type of Bullshit that make some Australians say foreigners should not be allowed In politics because they care more for their country of origin!!

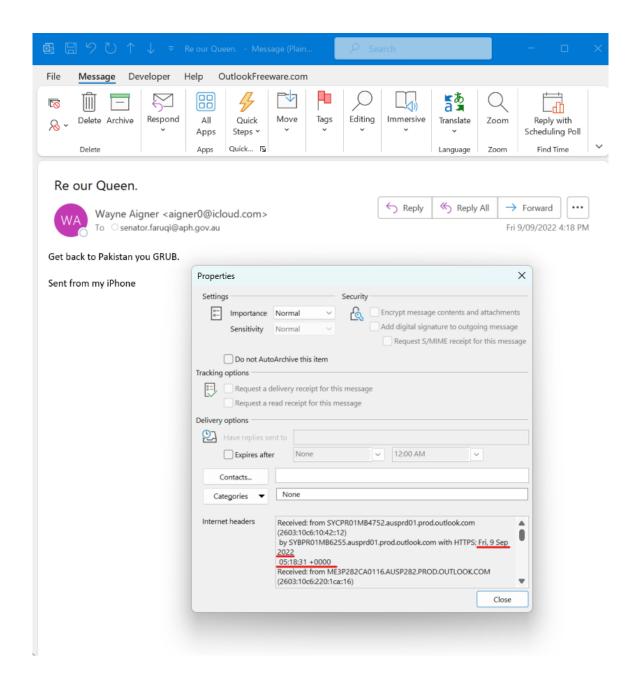

No wonder someone quoted well piss off back to Pakistan then!!

If Mehreen Faruqi and others like her, don't like our sovereign etc then why did they leave their country and come to Australia? With this disrespectful attitude and more, they don't deserve to be in Australia, send them back if they don't like what Aussies stand for. Sick over "newcomers" coming here to get away from their own countries then wanting to change the Australian way of life. The Queen is part of our life and always will be even with a new King, the Queen will never be forgotten in our life time.

Nicole Barrett excellent reply. I was going to say more but thought it may start WW3. Those that immigrate here have a reason why of many:- 1. better lifestyle & opportunities; 2. not war torn & reasonably safe; 3. more economical than many other countries and the list goes on. So why do they come here, if they want to live like in their own countries, perhaps they would rather have Osama Bin Laden; Husam Hussein; Kim Jong-un etc as their leaders in preference to the Queen and her heirs. How do these people who come to Australia pass our constitution to enter and our country and become citizens if they don't like our laws and leaders whether Commonwealth or Aussie leaders?

I see your point!

But disagree!!, because it has nothing to do with simply being born here!, I've seen 2nd, 3rd and more Generations born here and still see themselves as Middle Eastern and denounce Australia , it was also televised many years ago! and it still goes on today!!

So it's not about simply being born here!!, it must and always has to be all about Assimilation and where your Heart truely is at!!

if in your Heart you're 100% all Australia and all it stands for !, Rules, Laws Customs etc!, Then that's Good enough!.

Instead!!, What We really should not allow!!!, is people into parliament that will not!, and do not pledge allegiance to the Queen, King etc or rather want hold up a Quran or speak through an interpreter!!, It should all be done in English with hand on Bible, Period!, and Once in Parliament!, if they then don't want to stand in front of the Australian Flag etc then they should be instantly removed from Office!!

No one should be allowed to come / Migrate here!, only to want to continue to do the same things or want to change here in Australia a into the same thing of a place that he/she supposedly left behind!!, and when identified who they are and caught!, then They should be stripped of their temporary Visas etc and sent straight back!, No if buts or doubts!!!

If that makes me a bad Australian for wanting things for Australia a first!? Then I'm a bad Australian!!!

Mehreen is a politician to benefit Pakistan and Islam. Mehreen and the greens support the Islamic terrorist groups invading India's Jammu, Ladakh and Kashmir. In 1990 indigenous non Muslims of Kashmir had a choice to convert to Islam or die. Many were killed others escaped to Jammu. The Pakistan backed Islamic terrorists continue attacks to invade Hindu majority Jammu and Buddhist majority Ladakh to force convert them to make their land an Islamic state. Greens want the Islamic terrorist leader responsible for the deaths of indigenous non Muslim Kashmiri's released from prison. David Shoebridge got an award from Pakistan this year for his support for the Islamists taking land from India. This is a video of the Kashmir Islamists they support. There should be a Human rights complaint against Mehreen and the greens for supporting terrorists and they should be removed from parliament . You've summed it up well Pauline Hanson's Please Explain. Faruki is nothing more than a hypocritical and entitled left wing elitist.

As for her rant (mirroring those on the left) regarding 'displacement' of aboriginals, she would do well to consider the roots of her Islamic heritage and its track record of outright violence, barbarism and downright genocide of christians over the centuries (from Byzantium through even to the present day ). As far as I'm concerned her 'culture ' (and in particular people of her attitude ) exist in this country under sufferance of the silent majority .

Mehreen Faruqi and Lidia Thorpe's comments, before the Queen is even buried are distasteful in the extreme. Above all they lack a moral compass or any common decency.

Of course she bleats RACISM as soon as any criticism is directed against her. However her biggest vote probably does come from the Aussie hating ever increasing cancerous ghettoes in the west and south west of Sydney. So she continues to play to that Aussie hating audience. As well as the various nut case factions within the Greens.

What a joke that this woman, who was too scared to stay in failed Islamic state Pakistan, where women who act like her are not even tolerated, then flees to Australia, in full knowledge of our system of government, and then seeks to bite the hand that feeds her. Comes from a place that is kind of like racism on speed where Christians, and the few remaining Hindus there, and even minority Muslim sects, are blown up in their places of worship, persecuted, and assassinated. And then has the cheek to call US racists?

B**ch needs to get over herself, her disgusting inflammatory distasteful, disgraceful comments made about the late Monarch of our country were abhorrent and she was called out and slammed for it. Pauline was right and Jackie were right in saying, If she doesn't like how we live in this country and the respect we have for our Head of State, then maybe she would be better off, perhaps living back in that cesspit religious overpopulated hell hole they call Pakistan, where there is no such thing as freedom of expression, women are second class citizens under their barbaric Islamic law. I'm pretty sure if a Non Islamic Public figure living in Pakistan made a similar hate filled disgusting inflammatory comment about their beloved leader old Allah, their would be riots in the street, the individual would be arrested and most likely executed. She is very fortunate living in Australia, under the Westminster system of Govt, we don't have such barbaric disturbing rules. Also in Australia under our British Westminster system of Govt, we also have such a thing as separation of church and Govt. something seriously and sadly lacking under the dictatorous rule of Pakistan, where Religion of Islam is the rule of Government and law of rule. So maybe before she bags out and insults our Queen, she take a hard look at her own life and the barbaric cult like religion that she follows and how peoples freedoms are treated in her home country of Pakistan, as I'm pretty sure they have done some horrific things in their history just as much, she should Shut The F**k Up, before she dictates to us how we should be governed.

Im very concerned that the Greens Party is nothing but an outreach of the Colonialists new face of WEF . This woman is a product of India being broken up due to the Muslim leader at the time of Indepences from Britian Jinnah, not wanting to work with the Hindus . Get a grip people . This woman is Indian but they believe they are different simply because they are also a product of a brutal genocide within India from the Muslim invaders who brutalized the Hindus or those people who lived on the other side of the Sindhu river . Please educate yourselves as to what took place for 800 years on the Indian kingdoms due to proud , bragging conquests of the different Moghul Kings . It was seen as a great honour to kill millions of the native Hindu /vedic people of that great land . The Muslims now , such as many Pakistanis are a product of FORCED conversion into Islam over that period . The practice remains today within the country this woman emigrated from to Australia . Im curious why they choose to come to the land of the infidels ? Is the spirit of conquest like their subjugators, still raging within the hearts of people who were forced to submit or else be slaughtered by the millions by the Moghul Kings who conquered such a fair and beautiful civilization that was India

This idiot, who had immigrated because Australia is far better than the oppressive Islam controlled country from which she came, has very conveniently "forgotten" the appalling "conversions" that Islam has forced upon other countries AND its own people.

Amazing, had she tried that stunt where she came from (but I really doubt she'd have the backbone to have even thought of doing it), she most definitely would have become a victim. Perhaps she wouldn't be around to tell the tale; stoning to death is still practiced there.

These kind of refugees should not be permitted to criticize the ways do things over here!

They come over here without nothing, at all!

Their sole contribution is trouble, trying to change our ways of life, customs, jaws, faith

Enough is enough of these bulls!

If they don't like our beloved country, I say to each of them: "If you don't like Australia, you may well pack up your rubbish & belongings, and get back to where you came from."

We don't need trouble makers.likes you!

Congratulations Pauline Hanson!

It's beyond time to demand there be changes..I'm assimilate or P off!! You should be extremely grateful to be allowed be here let alone live in our beautiful country that our previous generations of Men and women fought and died for our country for our rights to freedom?? These heroes fought and died to protect us against what our past and present deceitful, sly and 100% corrupt members of parliament (Whitlam along with many more) are enforcing right in front of our eyes....

MEDIA RELEASE

Greens following woke rulebook with AHRC threat

15 September 2022

Threats of legal action before human rights bodies are again being used to intimidate and silence voices which dissent from woke orthodoxy by calling out its hypocrisy.

One Nation leader Senator Pauline Hanson said a threat by the Greens to take her before the Australian Human Rights Commission (AHRC) was straight out of the woke rulebook.

"We've seen this happen before," Senator Hanson said. "Somebody gets called out for doing or saying something highly offensive and they go crying to a human rights court pretending they're a victim. The hypocrisy is as "This screams entitlement and privilege with no responsibility, which is something the Australian Greens embody. They've obviously embarked on a deliberate strategy to offend as many Australians as they can, secure in the knowledge they will never be held to account for it.

They've insulted the memory of Queen Elizabeth II, a woman many Australians held in the highest regard, within hours of her death. They disrespect our national flag, literally moving it out of sight when they're facing a camera. They call our Parliament illegitimate while collecting generous salaries from taxpayers for being members of it.

"And they've told me to go back where I came from more than once. According to their rulebook it's perfectly acceptable for them to use this phrase, but not at all acceptable when I use it. When I use it, I'm to be censured and hauled before the AHRC.

"The Greens hate freedom of speech. They don't understand it. That's why they're so frightened by it and why they try to suppress it with outright threats and intimidation. As far as the Greens are concerned, freedom of speech is not a fundamental democratic right but a privilege to which only they are entitled."

You came to this country looking for a better life and we were generous enough to let you in. You are attempting to bankrupt the last real Australian left in the Senate which will destroy free speech in this country. You can dish out the abuse but you can't take it. You are a pathetic coward. You, madam are a disgrace to this country and its parliament. You have no right to call yourself an Australian and no right to make decisions for real Australians. You should immediately resign your commission and take the next plane back to Pakistan where no doubt the mullahs will be happy for you to tell them what to do.

You're a joke. Your court action against racial animus increases racial animus exponentially. Expectially if you're extorting people for hundreds of thousands of dollars because they said something mean to you in response to a ridiculous statement by you, as a representative of Australia, that turns frustration into hatred.

If I didn't know better, I'd think you were doing this on purpose.

It certainly looks like you are trying to get Australians to lash out.

Hanson telling you, in the eyes of Australians essentally a whiny foreigner, to go back to her own country if she doesn't find this one to work how she'd like is a very reasonable statement. If someone was a guest in your house making outrageous demands, you would obviously ask them to leave.

You're a Pakistani in Australia. Pakistanis ill_conceived_ideas You insult the queen of our country on the day of her death and then get upset when we get upset? At least in Australia you have the freedom to be as rude as you are, you would not have that right in Pakistan, that's what Pauline was insinuating. Shame on you.
