

OVERVIEW FOR ADVERTISING REGISTRAR POSITIONS

The Federal Court, through its National Court Framework, is undertaking a significant recruitment exercise of new Judicial Registrar positions and other key legal roles. The aim of the Court is to secure highly capable senior legal staff to lead the next phase of its internal reforms and to enhance the legal support provided to Federal Court judges through the important legal work of registrars. A variety of exciting positions with different areas of focus exist both locally and nationally.