I love this. How do we book it? Going to try and negotiate for it until January.

We tried 3 times to negotiate a better price because I know the agent Peter Gordon (as he sold my expensive house in Sydney last year) but the owner said he's only renting it for $15k a week...but I can get you his number ...maybe you can try 🙏

Peter Gordon

Ok. No worries. Maybe that's what we have to pay!

The advantage is that this house is on the water but it's inner west Sydney which means it's very close to production office

The ones "eastern suburbs" on beaches are very nice but it adds an extra 20 minute drive each way to everything - but that's like Bondi Beach etc - which visually is nice

I'm going to be in Savannah now until Aug 4th...and so we need to book my flight to get from here to Sydney...I know Greer hasn't had luck yet with Qantas which is a shame... can get free flight via Fiji Airways for myself and family buuuut it means staying in Fiji for a few days on the way...so I was guessing Gregor won't be into that??? But it'll save money
