Details of interview or conversation (including action required or taken)

You are reminded that it is an offence under the Commonwealth Criminal Code to disclose Defence information obtained in your official capacity where you are not authorised to do so. Unauthorised engagement with the media constitutes a breach of Defence's 'Media and Communication Policy.' Additionally, as a member of this unit you have been specifically directed not to engage with the media.

All personnel are required to answer the following questions:

- Have you contacted, been contacted by or communicated with any journalist or media representative in the past ten years? YES.
- If so what was the nature of this engagement? UNOFFICIALLY CONTACTED BY CHRIS MASTER, NICK MCKENZIE + MARK WILLIAMS - NO COMMENT PROVIDED - CONTACT REPORTED
- Have you communicated Official Information to any third party without authorisation? No.

Unauthorised engagement with the media or any third party constitutes grounds for criminal, disciplinary and administrative action. This may include revocation of security clearances and removal from Special Operations Command.

If you have first-hand knowledge concerning disclosure of official information without authorisation, or have information or concerns about any aspect of this matter, you are to directly contact the RSM at your first opportunity.
