2. I refer to my affidavit sworn 2 February 2022.

Dear Chris,

We refer to our recent telephone conference where we generally discussed the status of the above matter, in particular a key asset of the Receivership being the domestic and international share portfolios.

We apologise for the delay in getting this information to you – however we requested the updated portfolios for Ms Caddick’s CommSec accounts and only received them this morning. Attached are the two portfolios for your reference. Also attached is a copy of the Orders on 22 November 2021 confirming our appointment as Receivers of Ms Caddick’s property in paragraph 4.

What we need at this stage

As discussed during the above conference, we are in the process of obtaining further Orders from the Federal Court that will enable us to commence liquidating the above portfolios – we are hopeful that these further Orders may be made within the next month (and as soon as they are obtained we will confirm same with you). In preparation for this and given the respective stocks and volumes held and current market conditions we are seeking your preliminary views as to the following (noting same is not meant to be an exhaustive list):

- Whether you can prepare a formal disposal strategy regarding both portfolios that will assist us in evidencing to the Court that we have undertaken a proper process to liquidate the portfolios and what the cost and timing of same will be? CRITICAL
- The most appropriate manner to liquidate each of the stocks, ie one block sale or other strategies – which would be covered in more detail in the above strategy document;
- If there may be any present stock specific issues you are aware of that may change the timing of possible realisation, ie a stock current subject to takeover bids. Again, this could be covered in more detail in the above strategy document;
- Regarding the international portfolio whether you can assist here as this aspect was canvassed in during our recent call?
- Given the portfolio values what the execution costs will be per trade, as we will need to be to satisfy the Court that such costs are reasonable; and
- What further information you may require, including specific ID details from Daniel or I as part of the liquidation strategy.

If you there is any aspect of the above you would like to discuss further, please do not hesitate to contact me direct on 0417 889 222 or Vanessa Duckworth.

Kind regards
Bruce Gleeson
