OPENING
	ral Party is understandably sensitive to criticism that it has a women problem.
But tonig	ht that issue is being debated again with claims by a young staffer that she was raped
in a minis	sterial office in Parliament House.
	Higgins says the Government let her down. The word she uses is "betrayal."
I sat dow	n with her for this exclusive television interview.

THROW TO BREAK

Coming up after the break

PART II

Now we return to the interview with Brittany Higgins. The young liberal staffer who tells us she was raped inside parliament house.

[NO THROW TO BREAK] [coming up just sync]

PART III

A federal government spokesman admits that the meeting between Brittany Higgins and Senator Reynolds should not have taken place in the office where the alleged assault occurred. But he insists that the Defence Minister and Fiona Brown encouraged Brittany to speak to the police and guaranteed there would be no impact on her career.

Today the Prime Minister was questioned in parliament about the assault and he endorsed the way the case had been handled by government officers including Fiona Brown.
