Dear Associate,

We are informed that the Honourable Justice Wheelahan has requested some information from the AFP in relation to a person who was in attendance today at the hearing of Lesley Turner v Jacinta Nampinjinpa Price. We have received this request via the electoral office of Ms Price.

We understand that his Honour has requested the position of the AFP in relation to a Mr [REDACTED] and his attendance in the public gallery at this trial, and specifically whether the AFP has any concerns in relation to the safety of the parties.

While Mr [REDACTED] is known to the AFP, the AFP does not have any specific concerns about the safety of the parties that would lead to the AFP requesting Mr [REDACTED] to either be removed from Court or to not attend the court proceedings.

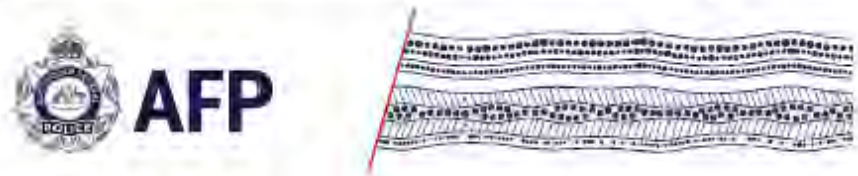

If Ms Price has additional information that has not previously been reported to the AFP, we are available to take receipt of that information to assist his Honour and the Court in managing any further issues as required.

The AFP would be grateful if you could provide this correspondence to the parties to the proceeding.

If you require further information, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Regards,

HELEN DREW
