Subject: Coming for you

Bruce,

A woman spoke about what happened to her tonight, and she's Australian of the Year.

I want you to have a think about what you did, and what might be around the corner for you.

It's inspiring when justice is delivered and the truth comes out. You know what they said: The truth will set you free.

How many people know what you did, and how many did you tell. How many cameras are in Parliament House and how many people tracked down the vision.

Think about it. Two former staffers from Aussies, now security guards.

It's going to be a magical 2021.
