

From: Serena Hill <[REDACTED]>
Date: 9 November 2017 at 19:26:32 AEDT
To: Patrick McIntyre <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Re: Good morning!

Dear Patrick,

I thought I might hear from you about all this. And no I'm afraid the meeting Rachael and I had with EJ and her agent Lisa Mann in the bar at STC was not noted. EJ insisted she didn't want to make a formal complaint so the meeting was 'off the record' so to speak.

We instigated the meeting given EJ had talked to Neil, GG I think and Annelies, and whilst EJ didn't want to take the matter any further we met to discuss how EJ was coping and what support we could offer (under our duty of care obligations).

By all means let me know if I can be of further assistance.

I'm so pleased about Lauren settling in and Muriel being a success. Much love to you and everyone and please wish Kip luck with Three Sisters.

Serena

Sent from my iPhone

On 9 Nov 2017, at 7:15 am, Patrick McIntyre <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Hello Serena!

I hate that my first communication with you post-STC is work related!

Do you recall whether your meeting with EJ to debrief on her experience on Lear was documented? And if so, where would the documentation be kept?
All going well here – Lauren doing a fabulous job, as is Annelies on Muriel's. (And Muriel's is shaping up to be a triumph.)

P

Patrick McIntyre | Executive Director
Sydney Theatre Company

P [REDACTED] | M [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

The Wharf, Pier 4 Hickson Road, Walsh Bay NSW 2000
P.O. Box 777, Millers Point, NSW 2000
www.sydneystheatre.com.au

A typical ream of paper takes about 60 litres of water to make. By printing less you're playing your part.