Hey Rebel, a crew list went out tonight that I had not signed off on. Please ignore. The order is wrong. Things are missing. And numbers are in it that should not be. Apologies. G

Kk x thanks for letting me know

Yes I notice myself and Camp Sugar are not listed in the producing section ...who did this?

DO NOT let this happen again. It's extremely disrespectful

Yeah it was done by a co-ord and signed off by Matt who did not properly look at it tonight as he was tired. I did not see it. He is extremely apologetic. Did you see the change? I asked for it to be put out again - with you after unigram because I thought that was probably a better order with Amanda? I needed it do it straight away but we can always amend it again next week. It has only gone to a few people not the whole crew list only those who get the production schedule daily. So maybe 15 people. I don't usually do this as I don't like to apportion blame not this was NOT something I approved or even knew was happening so yeah I won't let it happen again. It is certainly not my style. Let's talk on Monday.
