Hi Corine,

I can make a statement at 3:30pm or 4pm London time on Wednesday if that works for you?

Good Afternoon,

I hope this email finds you well,

Please can you provide me with a date and time this week for when you are free for me to take your statement over the phone.

I will be working Monday-Thursday between 9-4pm, I have no prior arrangements at this time so any time is convenient.

Millie is on nights from 10pm-6am, if those time are slightly more convenient for you (especially with the jet lag) please do let me know.

Thank you kindly,
Corine

Hi Rebel,

I hope you have enjoyed your time in LA!

I am on night shifts next week so I've allocated it to a member of my team who can arrange when to do a telephone statement with you.

Unfortunately the locations are not accurate enough for us to identify an address and even so, we don't have any power to enter the address to search for it. I have popped on an intel report in case that address is known to other officers relating to phone theft.

Please make contact with my colleague Corine (CC'd in) to arrange a telephone statement.

Thank you and look after yourself!

Millie

Hi Millie,

Yes that's the location in Finsbury Park where it's saying it was for at least two days. But now the signal is not active - maybe cause the phone died or was turned off??

Happy to give a statement anytime - I am flying to LA Sunday for 8 days but could do telephone statement today or tomorrow on this UK number:

Hi Rebel,

Sorry for the delay in my response – I’ve had a few busy days!

Unfortunately officers attended and could not locate it. Is it still shown as there? My suspicion is that was the last known location before it was turned off/sold on unfortunately.

Would you like to provide some dates that work best for you to give a statement and I’ll let you know what works for us too? We can either do the statement in person or on the telephone – whichever would be easier for you.

Let me know if there is anything else you need.

Kind regards,
Millie

Hi Millie,

Thank you for your call today.

So the phone is currently located since about 1:30am today in Finsbury Park - here are the GPS photos.

My phasing has a silver case with a metallic magnet silver circle on back. It looks like it's been dumped there because it hasn't moved since 1:30am.

Here are the photos attached.

I am happy to help the police in any way I can and really appreciate your assistance with this. Can't thank you enough,

Rebel x
