Important Information

As required by the Court's Rules, this Notice has been inserted as the first page of the document which has been accepted for electronic filing. It is now taken to be part of that document for the purposes of the proceeding in the Court and contains important information for all parties to that proceeding. It must be included in the document served on each of those parties.

The Reason for Listing shown above is descriptive and does not limit the issues that might be dealt with, or the orders that might be made, at the hearing.

The date and time of lodgment also shown above are the date and time that the document was received by the Court. Under the Court's Rules the date of filing of the document is the day it was lodged (if that is a business day for the Registry which accepts it and the document was received by 4.30 pm local time at that Registry) or otherwise the next working day for that Registry.

The appellants appeal from the whole of the judgment of the Federal Court given on 22 April 2022 at Melbourne.

GROUNDS OF APPEAL:

1. The primary judge erred in concluding that the adverse security assessment of the respondent made by the first appellant on 23 April 2018 was invalid on the basis that it:
 - (a) involved a denial of procedural fairness to the respondent; and
 - (b) was legally unreasonable.
2. The primary judge erred in finding that the officers of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation who interviewed the respondent on 15 September 2020 prejudged the outcome.
3. The primary judge erred in concluding that the adverse security assessment of the respondent made by the first appellant on 27 October 2020 was invalid on the basis that it:
 - (a) involved a denial of procedural fairness to the respondent; and
 - (b) involved a failure by the first appellant to perform the task required by s 37(1) of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979 (Cth).

ORDERS SOUGHT:

4. The appeal is allowed.
5. The orders of the Court below are set aside and in place thereof order that the proceeding be dismissed with costs.
6. The respondent is to pay the costs of the appeal.
