

PACIFIC \(/TAGS/PACIFIC\)

Pacific chief justices' initiative aims to improve rule of law

From Dateline Pacific \(/international/programmes/datelinepacific\),
4:05 am on 23 April 2018

Chief justices from around the Pacific met in Auckland last week to consider ways to improve the rule of law and good governance in their judiciaries.

The Pacific Judicial Strengthening Initiative is funded by the New Zealand aid programme through to 2021.

The chair of the body, the Solomon Islands chief justice Albert Palmer, told Don Wiseman what they aim to achieve.

Chief Justice Sir Albert Palmer Photo: RNZ/ Koroi Hawkins