~~INTERLOCUTORY AND FINAL RELIEF~~

Receivership Appointment Orders

9A. Pursuant to section 1101B(1) of the Corporations Act, Bruce Gleeson and Daniel Robert Soire of Jones Partners of Level 13, 189 Kent St, Sydney NSW 2000 be appointed as joint and several receivers (Final Receivers), of the Receivership Property for the purpose of:

- (a) identifying, collecting and securing the Receivership Property;
- (b) taking possession of and realising the Receivership Property;
- (c) if considered necessary, winding up the Caddick Service Trust;
- (d) to the extent necessary, establishing an interest-bearing trust account with an Authorised Deposit Taking Institution nominated by the Final Receivers for the purposes of holding any net proceeds of realisation of the Property referred to in Orders 9A(b) and 9A(c) (the Receivers' Trust Account);
- (e) to the extent necessary, ascertaining the total quantum of Investor Funds and any funds advanced by any Interested Party to the First or Second Defendant and the identity of all investors who in the Final Receivers' view ought to be included as an Out of Pocket Investor as well as any Interested Party who may be a creditor of the First or Second Defendant;
- (f) to the extent necessary, ascertaining the total quantum of the First Defendant Investor Funds and the amount of money returned to each of those investors and the total quantum of funds received by the First Defendant from any Interested Party;

- (g) to the extent necessary, ascertaining the total quantum of the Second Defendant Investor Funds and the amount of money returned to each of those investors and the total quantum of funds received by the Second Defendant from any Interested Party;
- (h) distributing the funds in the Receivers Trust Account to Investors and any Interested Party in accordance with the Court's directions.

9B. The Final Receivers have the following powers:

- (a) the power to do all things reasonably necessary or convenient to be done, in Australia and elsewhere, for or in connection with, or as incidental to the attainment of the objectives for which the Final Receivers are appointed;
- (b) the powers under section 1101B(8) of the Corporations Act;
- (c) the powers set out in section 420 of the Corporations Act save for the powers set out in paragraphs 420(2) (d), (h), (j), (m), (n), (o), (s), (t) and (u) and provided that wherever in that section the word 'corporation' appears, it shall be taken to include reference to the First Defendant;
- (d) the power to seek directions from the Court regarding the distribution of funds to Investors and any Interested Party and any matter relating to the exercise of the Final Receivers' powers;
- (e) the power to require, by request in writing, any employee, agent, banker, solicitor, stockbroker, accountant, consultant or other professionally qualified person who has provided services or advice to the First Defendant or the Second Defendant, to provide such reasonable assistance (including access to any documents, books or records to which the First Defendant has a right of access or control) to the Final Receivers as may be required from time to time
- (f) to the extent that the Final Receivers have the power to conduct examinations, they are not to do so without first obtaining the approval of the Court, after giving ASIC prior written notice of their intention to seek court approval, and copies of any affidavits or other evidence they intend to rely upon.

9C. Before realising any of the Receivership Property, the Final Receivers shall:

- (a) give notice to any Interested Party of their intention to realise the property and inform the said parties in writing that:
 - (i) Interested Parties should advise the Final Receivers within 10 business days if they object to the sale of any of the property, specify the precise nature of the property and the basis of their objection and provide documentary evidence in support of their objection;
 - (ii) in the case of the Real Property, that they seek the written consent of the occupiers of any such property, which is to be provided by the occupiers within 28 days of the date of the Final Receivers giving such notice, 30 July 2024 that they will vacate the said property by a date acceptable to the Final Receivers;
 - (iii) in the event Interested Parties advise the Final Receivers of any objection to sale, the Final Receivers are required by the Court to re-list the matter and seek further directions from the Court in which case the Interested Party may be susceptible to an adverse order for costs.
- (b) in the event the Final Receivers:
 - (i) receive no objections to the sale of the property within the notice period referred to in sub-paragraph 9C(a)(i) above; and
 - (ii) in respect of the Real Property, obtain the written consent of the occupiers of the Real Property to vacate the said property in accordance with sub-paragraph 9C(a)(ii);

the Final Receivers shall as soon as practicable following the expiry of the notice period referred to in sub-paragraph 9C(a)(i), and the agreed date for vacation of the Real Property, take steps to realise that property;
- (c) in the event objections are received within the notice period referred to in sub-paragraph 9C(a)(i) above, or in the event the Final Receivers do not procure the written consent of the occupiers of the Real Property to vacate the property within the time period by the date, and as provided for, in subparagraph 9C(a)(ii), the Final Receivers shall seek directions from the Court as to whether they are justified in taking all necessary steps to realise the property (in respect of which objections have been received or which the occupants have not agreed to vacate) having regard to the said objections and in doing so join all parties they consider necessary to be joined to any such application.

9D. The above orders do not affect the rights of any secured creditor holding a mortgage or other security interest over any of the Property.

Receivership remuneration and indemnity orders

9E. The remuneration, costs and expenses of Bruce Gleeson and Daniel Robert Soire of Jones Partners of Level 13, 189 Kent St, Sydney NSW 2000 as receivers of the property of the First Defendant pursuant to order 5 made on 15 December 2020, that are approved by the Court, shall be paid out of the funds held within Receivers' Trust Account.

9F. The Final Receivers shall be entitled to reasonable remuneration properly incurred in the performance of their duties arising in connection with their appointment and in the exercise of their powers as may be approved by the Court on the application of the Final Receivers, together with all costs, expenses and disbursements.

9G. The Final Receivers' remuneration is to be calculated on the basis of time reasonably spent by the Final Receivers and any partner or employee of the Final Receivers, at rates agreed with ASIC.

9H. The remuneration, costs, expenses and disbursements of the Final Receivers, Provisional Liquidators and Liquidators are to be paid from the funds held within Receivers' Trust Account.

9I. The Final Receivers be indemnified from funds held within Receivers' Trust Account against any claim, liability, proceedings, cost, charge or expense however arising and whether past, present or future, fixed or ascertained, actual or contingent, known (actually or contingently) or unknown which they may incur or be subject to as a result of or in connection with their appointment.

Termination of Interim Receivers and Provisional Liquidators

9J. Immediately upon order 9A taking effect, the appointment of Bruce Gleeson and Daniel Robert Soire of Jones Partners of Level 13, 189 Kent St, Sydney NSW 2000 as receivers pursuant to 1323(1)(h)(i) the Corporations Act under paragraph 5 of the orders made on 15 December 2020 (the Interim Receivers) be terminated.
