Im really concerned about this letter. I can't tell whether it's someone trying to hurt me or warn me. I think Em has bought the story...

Would you be able to keep your hotel room?

I'll see what I can work out. I don't like this at all. It's really worrying me too - I felt sick when you told me. I hate the idea of someone watching us / knowing what we're doing & feeling strongly enough about it to go to the trouble of sending you a letter. Mostly though I'm scared that I'll never be able to see you again.
